GATHERING

Our God Is Here

Chris Muglia

Here in this time, here in this place, here we are standing face to face.
 Here in our hearts, here in our lives, our God is here.
 Here for the broken, here for the strong, here in this temple we belong.
 Here in our hearts, here in our lives, our God is here.

Refrain

And we cry: "Ho - ly! Ho - ly! Ho - ly are you!" We cry:
 "Ho - ly! Ho - ly! Ho - ly and true!" A - men, we do be-lieve our God is here. Our God is here.

Here in the Word, God is revealed, here where the wounded can be healed.
 Here in our hearts, here in our lives, our God is here.
 Here we become what we receive, here in this Eucharistic feast.
 We are his body, living as one, our God is here.

Blessed be Your name

The Wonderful Journey

Dear Friends,

Today's readings remind us of the power and promise of the Eucharist. That in seeking reconciliation and celebrating the Eucharist, we are receiving confirmation and strength for our personal journeys. We are asked to believe without seeing and that our belief will lead us to everlasting life.

I am not a theologian. I am a scientist/businesswoman who spent the majority of my career developing therapies for life-threatening diseases. I have tried to be on the straight and narrow path with God, but have strayed more times than I'd care to admit. Yet, He has always welcomed me back home.

Being a data driven person, I've often wondered about believing in God without seeing Him. I've learned that if we slow down, look and listen, that we will find God all around us and working through us:

- We are offered unconditional love and forgiveness not only from God, but from our families and friends. Sometimes we just have to allow ourselves to be forgiven.
- We are offered hope. Hope to begin anew, to heal, to make it through tough times. Hope that our dearly departed loved ones are in God's loving embrace.
- God has blessed each of us with specific gifts that He wants us to share in order to take care of ourselves and others to the best of our abilities.
- People truly love and show immeasurable compassion – The selflessness & tirelessness of caregivers; donations of time and money to assist those in need; blood & organ donors; a small act of kindness to brighten someone's day, which could be a turning point in their life...
- The sound of God's love is all around us – a wedding vow "I do" – a newborn baby's cry – a child's belly laugh – the words: "I'm sorry," "I forgive you," "I love you," "Please can you help me?" "I'm here for you." – My terminally ill father witnessing something beyond my earthly capabilities and smiling to me saying, "Don't worry Baby, I'm going to be okay..."

Celebrating the Eucharist is quite emotional for me as I think about God's love and blessings. I also think about my shortcomings, continually pray for forgiveness and strength to be the best person I can possibly be. I feel the divine surge of the Holy Spirit through the Eucharist each week.

There is no doubt about what God is asking of us in the second reading (Eph 4:30–5:2): "All bitterness, fury, anger, shouting, and reviling must be removed from you, along with all malice. And be kind to one another, compassionate, forgiving one another as God has forgiven you in Christ. So be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love, as Christ loved us and handed himself over for us."

God is inviting us to join him on a most wonderful journey. He wants us to learn from Him, live like Him, forgive like Him and love like Him. I hope to learn from those of you further down this spiritual path with God and welcome others who are thinking about putting your feet on the trail. There's room for us all.

Spark! at Home ~ Jesus tells us that when we listen to God, we will learn that Jesus comes from God, and he tells us that when we believe that Jesus comes from God, we begin to see things more clearly. When we believe that Jesus is from God, we can also believe that Jesus gave us his Body and Blood in the Eucharist, which we celebrate at Mass. When we believe this and receive Jesus in the Eucharist, Jesus promises that we will live with God forever in heaven.

Three: Sixteen at Home ~ To know a few facts about a person does not necessarily mean that we know that person well. If someone knew you only as a member of your family, what might they know about you? What about those who really know you, what would they say? In today's gospel, some of the people in the crowd are upset because Jesus told them that he was the bread of life that came down from heaven. They don't believe this because they seem to think they know Jesus. What is the difference between knowing Jesus, and just knowing about Jesus?

Youth Choir

Padre Serra's Youth Choir aka One Voice re-starts in the fall. Would you like to be a part of it? We have a few openings still, especially for young men! What are we looking for?

- A pleasant voice (doesn't have to be fantastic, just able to carry a tune and match pitch)
- A good attitude
- A desire to be of service helping the community to worship Jesus Christ
- Willingness to commit to the schedule
- Previous experience, music reading, playing an instrument – these are all nice but not required

To find out if you and the Youth Choir would be a good fit, arrange a vocal check (about 15 minutes) with the director (805) 482-6417 x327, dominic@padreserra.org. More info at www.padreserra.org/news/youth-choir

Faith Sharing

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table.

John 6:41-51 ~ Jesus the Living Bread

Bread nourishes us physically, and Jesus as the living bread nourishes spiritually. In my own experience how does the Eucharist feed me, renew me, and give me a new sense of strength for my life's journey? How would I explain this to a non-believer or someone who is curious?

Our Giving

Quarterly Focus

A new chapel is being built at St. John's Pleasant Valley Hospital. This new sacred space will be light and airy, surrounded by art, and will serve as a place of solace and hope for patients, families, visitors and staff to reflect, pray and heal. Please call for a tour and details (805) 988-2635 or visit www.supportstjohns.org/chapel-at-pv

Our Prayer Life

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary ~ August 15

Mass 8:00am and 7:00pm. It's a holy day of obligation ... rather a holy day of opportunity to celebrate the Blessed Virgin Mary who is honored as Queen of Heaven. The Church highly reveres Mary and we honor her throughout the year with several feast days, among them the Feast of the Assumption. This holy day celebrates our belief that Mary, when the course of her earthly life was completed, was taken up body and soul into heaven. In heaven, she already shares in the glory of her son Jesus' resurrection. (CCC 974)

What does this mean for us? This teaching gives us hope that, just like Mary, we will live forever with the risen Jesus. The privilege given her at the end of her life is an anticipation of the resurrection of our own mortal bodies in glorious form at the end of time. Everything that is possible for Mary is possible for us!

Becoming Catholic ~ RCIA

Married to a Catholic?

Are you married to a Catholic, been attending mass with them, even raised your children Catholic, but not yet taken that next step to inquire about becoming Catholic yourself? Or perhaps you'd just like to know more about your spouse's faith. The process of being received into the Church is not one-size-fits-all and always takes into consideration individual backgrounds, circumstances and needs. To explore the possibilities, please contact Catherine Shaddock: catherine@padreserra.org or (805) 482-6417 x331.

Faith Formation for Children and Teens Starts September 23. Register today!

A foundation that lasts a lifetime...

Just like math and English, our kids continue their religious education every year, preschool through high school, and grow to know and love Jesus.

Little Church 3 years to K

During Sunday mass at 9:00am and 11:00am

Children gather to make friends and learn about God and our Catholic faith through stories, prayer, songs, crafts and snacks.

Spark! Grades 1 through 5

Monday and Wednesday 3:30 / 5:15pm

Kids learn our faith traditions, prayers and practices through games, crafts and hands-on lessons in a way that fosters fun, fellowship and discipleship. Family events are built in to the curriculum too!

Three:Sixteen Grades 6 through 8

Wednesdays 6:30 - 8:00pm

These kids have an equal focus on bible study and building community with one another.

4:12 High School

Wednesdays 7:00 - 9:00pm

'Four one two' teens meet to make connections, share their insights and concerns, and grow in faith. They gather with young adult small group leaders and our Youth Minister.

Baptism for School-Age Children Grades 1 through 8

We have a loving and welcoming process at Padre Serra through which children 6 years of age and older are prepared to be received into the Church.

First Reconciliation and First Communion Grades 1 through 8

After a minimum of two consecutive years of the whole family participating in Faith Formation, children who are ready to receive their First Reconciliation (Confession) and First Communion, attend 2 half day retreats with their parents to prepare for these holy sacraments.

Youth Confirmation High School

This two-year process for high school teens includes Sunday sessions, hands-on ministry, large and small group faith sharing, community events, retreats and service experiences that all culminate in receiving the sacrament.
