Aha! Now I See It! It's as Clear as Day!

Dear Friends,

The Merriam Webster dictionary defines an Epiphany as (1): a usually sudden manifestation or perception of the essential nature or meaning of something. (2): an intuitive grasp of reality through something (such as an event) usually simple and striking. (3): an illuminating discovery, realization, or disclosure.

The Epiphany of the Lord that we celebrated two weeks ago certainly meets these criteria. Foreign Magi, following a very unusual and striking star, encounter the baby Jesus, and understand that he is the savior not only of the Jews, but of the Gentiles as well. Their reverence for the child may have caused an epiphany for the Jews surrounding him at the time, including Mary and Joseph.

Our Eastern Christian brothers and sisters celebrate three such manifestations or epiphanies. The first is the arrival of the Magi with their gifts, the revelation of Jesus as savior for all. We heard about the second in last week's gospel. The now grown Jesus, about to embark on his public ministry, first seeks out his cousin John and requests baptism. John, knowing who Jesus is, questions this, saying that it is Jesus who should be baptizing him. But he obeys, and when Jesus comes up out of the water, many see a dove descending on him, and hear God's voice from heaven saying to Jesus "you are my beloved Son. In you I am well pleased." In this way, Jesus' special relationship to the divine is revealed or manifested to those present (and to those who will hear their testimony later).

In this week's reading from John's gospel we hear of the third of these epiphanies. Jesus (with a little prompting from his mother) changes water into wine at a wedding feast at Cana. Much has been written about Jesus' choice of venues and circumstances for his first miracle. Some say that a wedding feast where he provides the lacking wine is a metaphor for the kingdom of God. Others see Jesus' generosity filling six stone water jars, each with a 20 to 30 gallon capacity, with wine of a superior quality as a sign of the abundant life that God calls us to. Still others point to the joyous occasion that Jesus obviously intended to enjoy as pointing to his humanity. But I think all can agree that Jesus' divinity was also manifested here.

There is another aspect to see here as well. As is the case in so many of Jesus' miracles, the beneficiaries were active participants. The wedding couple and their family provided the stone jars and the water, not to mention the event and the invitation that brought Jesus and his mother there. And Jesus' mother Mary provided a little encouragement.

How can we manifest Jesus to others? How can we create epiphanies in our lives?

Siempre Adelante,

Dominic MacAller
Liturgy and Music Minister

Landings

A Caring Ministry
for Returning Catholics

Starts Thursday, February 7

If you are an inactive Catholic you may want to consider Landings. We are a group of Catholics who, for any number of reasons, were away from the church.

Landings offers a safe place to tell one's story, discern a place in the Church,
and find a way home.

Next 10 week Landings series:
Thursdays, February 7 - April 11
7:00pm, San Juan Bautista room

Join us, we welcome you.
