GATHERING

Our God Is Here

Chris Muglia

Here in this time, here in this place, here we are standing face to face.
 Here in our hearts, here in our lives, our God is here.
 Here for the broken, here for the strong, here in this temple we belong.
 Here in our hearts, here in our lives, our God is here.

Refrain

And we cry: "Ho - ly! Ho - ly! Ho - ly are you!" We cry:
 "Ho - ly! Ho - ly! Ho - ly and true!" A - men, we do be-lieve our God is here. Our God is here.

Here in the Word, God is revealed, here where the wounded can be healed.
 Here in our hearts, here in our lives, our God is here.
 Here we become what we receive, here in this Eucharistic feast.
 We are his body, living as one, our God is here.

Date Night

Dear Faith Family,

By the time you read this, the Year 2 Confirmation teens will be experiencing their final day of their Confirmation retreat.

Year 2 retreat season is probably my favorite time of the year as a Youth Minister. The ability to bring a bunch of teens to a secluded place with their peers without technology or other distractions is such a challenging task. Although there is reluctance in the beginning (I don't blame them) to see the teens power through the discomfort to pursue a conversation with God is something I will never take for granted.

With our retreat coming to an end, I would like to make my yearly plea to all those who haven't gone on retreat in quite some time: It is worthwhile.

The idea of planning on leaving for a weekend, traveling, paying for accommodations, finding a babysitter, etc., is a tough task, but with any important relationship in our lives, we need the intentional one on one.

I like to think of retreats as dates with our Savior. I'm blessed that I have family who is willing to watch our daughter so Britney and I can have nights out. They aren't as frequent as they were before Reggie, but we still cherish the time that we have to spend together, just the two of us.

Now, the reason why our date nights are so important aren't because we get to relax and get away, but rather, it helps us to understand and appreciate the everyday nature of our marriage. This is why I feel retreats are important. The date night aspect of a retreat is not just to get away from the real world, but the retreat is supposed to help us understand and cherish the everyday nature of our relationship with God.

Please keep our Confirmation candidates in your prayers. Their Confirmation liturgy is coming up very soon! Hopefully they had a glimpse of God this weekend and hopefully that glimpse will stick in their minds forever.

I will also be praying for all of you to have continued strong encounters with God.

God Bless,

Brett Becker
Youth and Young Adult Minister

Faith Sharing

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table.

Luke 6:39-45 ~ Our words reveal what is in our hearts

We, humans, are vulnerable to sin. But sometimes we see the sins of others more easily than we recognize our own sins. Is this true in my own life? Why does Jesus warn us not to judge others?

Safeguard the Children

Trained Adults Can Take Steps to Prevent Suspicion

Protecting God's Children™ Program is in place to raise awareness about the behaviors of adults that may indicate a threat to the safety of children and young people. Through this program, trained adults learn how to prevent abuse from happening, in part by taking steps to eliminate suspicious behaviors, such as being alone with a young person. Creating a culture of openness and transparency goes a long way toward alleviating concerns of inappropriate behavior by adults, and helps children feel safe in their environment.
