GATHERING*10,000 Reasons (Bless the Lord)

Jonas Myrin &amp; Matt Redman

1. The sun comes up, it's a new day dawning,
It's time to sing Your song again.
Whatever may pass, and whatever lies before me,
Let me be singing when the evening comes.

2. You're rich in love and You're slow to anger.
Your name is great and Your heart is kind.
For all Your goodness, I will keep on singing;
Ten thousand reasons for my heart to find.

3. And on that day, when my strength is failing,
The end draws near, and my time has come;
Still, my soul will sing Your praise unending
Ten thousand years and then forevermore!

There's a Wideness in God's Mercy

Ed Bolduc

VERSES

1. There's a wide - ness in God's mer - cy Like the wide - ness of the sea; There's a kind - ness in God's jus - tice, Which is more than lib - er - ty. There is plen - ti - ful re - demp - tion In the blood that has been shed; There is joy for all the mem - bers In the sor - rows of the Head. To Verse 2

REFRAIN

So be mer - ci - ful, just as our God is mer - ci - ful. — Be mer - ci - ful, just as our God is mer - ci - ful to us. Let there be a wide - ness in our mer -
- cy. Let there be a kind - ness in our hearts.
Oh, may our lives — be mer - ci - ful. —

Frederick W. Faber, 1814–1863, alt.
Ref.: Ed Bolduc

Ed Bolduc
Text of refrain and music © 2015, WLP

2. There is welcome for the sinner,
And a promised grace made good;
There is mercy with the Savior;
There is healing in Christ's blood.
There is grace enough for thousands
Of new worlds as great as this;
There is room for fresh creations
In that upper home of bliss.
3. For the love of God is broader
Than the measure of the mind;
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind.
If our love were but more simple,
We would know the living Word;
And our lives would be thanksgiving
In the kindness of the Lord.
4. There's a wideness in God's mercy
Like the wideness of the sea;
There's a kindness in God's justice,
Which is more than liberty.
There is plentiful redemption
In the blood that has been shed;
There is joy for all the members
In the sorrows of the Head.

Being In the Tribe Isn't Enough. God Says We Must Bear Fruit!

Dear Friends,

Today's scripture readings (Exodus 3:1-81, 13:15; 1 Corinthians 10:1-6, 10-12; Luke 13:1-9 and Psalm 103: 1-2, 3-4, 6-7, 8, 11) are full of messages from God to his people. Moses' message to the Israelites is one of deliverance from slavery in Egypt.

Paul's message to the Corinthians, and Jesus' to his disciples is one of repentance and accountability. "Whoever thinks he is standing secure should take care not to fall." Paul looks back at the followers of Moses who were struck down in the desert because God was not pleased with "most of them."

Jesus cautions his disciples not to think that victims of tragedies (Galileans whose blood Pilate mixed with their sacrifices and eighteen people killed by a falling tower in Siloam) are somehow guiltier than everybody else: "By no means! But if you do not repent, you will all perish as they did." Jesus continues by telling of a gardener who pleads with an orchard owner to spare a non-producing fig tree: "Sir, leave it for this year also, and I shall cultivate the ground around it and fertilize it; it may bear fruit in the future. If not, you can cut it down."

Who is the orchard owner? Who is the gardener? Could both be Jesus? One the King of the universe who comes to judge the living and the dead and the other the loving, patient, pleading Savior and advocate, who sends the Spirit to make us fruitful?

Inevitably, we will fail. Repeatedly. But Psalm 103 reassures us: The Lord is kind and merciful. He pardons all our iniquities, heals all our ills, redeems our life from destruction, and crowns us with kindness and compassion. I read this crowning with kindness and compassion two ways: 1. The Lord's kindness and compassion to us, redeeming us from destruction and 2. The Spirit working within us to make us ever more kind and more compassionate.

The scriptures are clear. It isn't enough just to be members of the tribe, or of the "club." We are accountable to God for being fruitful where we are planted. Here are two ways you could be fruitful.

Men for the Choir: We are looking for basses and baritones to join our wonderful choir. Right now we've got about 20 sopranos and 20 altos, 12 tenors and only about 7 basses / baritones. We'd love to double that! Here are the requirements to sing in the choir:

- Pleasant voice (doesn't have to be fantastic) that can match pitch and carry a tune
- Good attitude, willingness to be of service
- Availability to be present for at least 80% of all rehearsals / services
- A good ear – the ability to sing back a passage that you hear. Music reading is not required, but it is certainly welcome.
- Experience singing in a choir (or playing an instrument in band) is also a plus, but not required.
- Interested? Contact dominic@padreserra.org for a quick, private, "vocal checkup" or call 805.482.6417 ext. 327

Audio/Visual Ministry: This is a fairly new ministry at Padre Serra, but one that will inevitably grow and deepen. At the moment we are looking for people to help "mix" sound at mass and at some Serra Center events, but this will likely expand to other responsibilities sooner rather than later. If you're interested, please contact Bill Giles audiovisual@padreserra.org who is coordinating this exciting ministry. Training will be provided.

Becoming Catholic

Lent's Connection to Baptism

The liturgical season we now call Lent began in the early centuries of the Church as the period when the Elect (those chosen to be initiated at the Easter Vigil) completed their preparation for the sacraments. In more recent times all of us fast, pray and perform works of mercy along with the Elect in anticipation of the great feast of Easter when they will be baptized, confirmed and receive Eucharist for the first time and we will renew our own baptismal promises. This year Padre Serra Parish has five Elect. Their pictures are displayed near the baptism pool. Please pray for them as they approach the waters of baptism. If you would like to know more about the process of becoming Catholic, please contact Catherine Shaddock at (805) 482-6417 x331 or catherine@padreserra.org
