Good Shepherd

Dear Parish Family,

Today is known as Good Shepherd Sunday because each year of the liturgical cycle on this 4th Sunday, the Gospel is always taken from the 10th chapter of John where Jesus speaks of himself as the “Good Shepherd.”

Today’s Gospel challenges us to TRUST in God and never be despaired no matter the ugly events of our lives, because our Shepherd is always there to lead us to greener pastures. He knows us and our needs, much more than we know ourselves. That is why the responsorial psalm reminds us that “We are his people, the sheep of his flock.” That means, as a shepherd never departs from his flock or allows them to be endangered, Jesus will never depart from us or allow us to be endangered. As a shepherd leads his flock to greener pastures, Jesus is leading us to a better life here on earth and to an eternal life there in heaven.

We must also be “listening sheep.” Jesus emphasized the qualities of his sheep when he said: “My sheep hear my voice ... and they follow me.” As the sheep of Christ’s flock, do we listen to his voice in the words of the Sacred Scripture and in the teachings of the Church? Do we have compassion for the poor as he did? Do we pray as he prayed and do we have passion for the things of God as he had? Are we answering his call?

This Sunday is also Vocation Sunday, when we pray for our priest and Church leaders who are caring for the souls, who go out and gather the lost sheep to bring them back to God’s loving embrace. And for all the many good shepherds in our lives, who are given the responsibility of caring for others. May we all be his good sheep, listening attentively to his voice, and follow his example of self-giving love. Inspiring others to follow him especially in the vocation of priesthood or religious life.

On this Mother’s Day weekend I want to wish all the mothers who so diligently give of themselves in every way for their children, a bouquet of blessings.

Siempre Adelante,

Tere Delgado

Becoming Catholic

Sacraments and the Easter Season

The 50 days of the Easter Season is a time when we reflect more fervently upon the Sacraments. The neophytes, those who celebrated Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion at the Easter Vigil, spend time deepening their understanding of their newly received sacraments and share in the Eucharist with us every Sunday. Confirmation for our teens and adults as well as First Communion for our children are also celebrated during this joyful season. This is a good time for all of us to reflect on the gift of the Sacraments and give thanks to God for their place in our lives. If you are an adult Catholic who has not yet been confirmed or received First Communion and would like to do so, please contact Catherine Shaddock at (805) 482-6417 x331 or catherine@padreserra.org

Faith Sharing

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table.

John 10:27-30 ~ Jesus knows us and calls us.

In the Gospel, Jesus describes himself as the Good Shepherd, describing the relationship with his Father and the unity they share. Jesus said, "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me." How does Jesus speak to you? What new path is he asking of you?
