GATHERING

Blessed Be Your Name

Matt Redman & Beth Redman

Blessed be Your name
In the land that is plentiful
Where Your streams of abundance flow
Blessed be Your name

Blessed be Your name
When I'm found in the desert place
Though I walk through the wilderness
Blessed be Your name

REFRAIN: Ev - 'ry bless - ing You pour out I'll turn back to praise.

When the dark - ness clos - es in, Lord, still I will say,

"Bless-ed be the name of _ the Lord, _ bless-ed be Your name. Bless-ed be the name of _ the _ Lord, _ bless-ed be Your glo _ ri _ ous name." _

Blessed be Your name
When the sun's shining down on me
When the world's all as it should be
Blessed be Your name

Blessed be Your name
On the road marked with suffering
Though there's pain in the offering
Blessed be Your name

Every blessing You pour out I'll turn back to praise...

Love One Another

Dear friends on the journey,

As I write this, I am preparing to visit the Holy Land. On May 13, Fr. Patrick and 41 parishioners departed for a weeklong journey, visiting the holiest of places, the land where Jesus was born, lived, died and resurrected. I'm wondering what it will be like to see, feel, taste, and smell all of Israel. Will we encounter Jesus there like the people of his time did?

In today's gospel, at the Last Supper, Jesus sums up his mission and message with one commandment... love one another as I have loved you. As the apostles journeyed throughout Israel with Jesus, they witnessed first-hand his examples of love and we see it for ourselves in the stories of Jesus' healing the blind and the lame, touching lepers, welcoming children, forgiving sinners, being with the outcast of society and laying down his life on the cross. This is the mission Jesus charged his apostles and its our mission too as 21st-century disciples.

So what does that look like for us now?

Gossip never Smile at people passing by
Let the other driver in
Offer a kind word to a coworker
Take up the neighbor's trash cans
Apologize first
Affirm your spouse
Call your aging parents often
Help the hungry, homeless
Pray for an enemy
Think of ourselves less
Express gratitude to loved ones

Judge never
Speak kindly to the grocery checker
Open a door for someone
Play with the child left out
Buy coffee for the next person in Starbucks
Forgive often
Listen to your kids
Check in on siblings and friends with a simple text
Write to the imprisoned
Visit the sick and elderly
Think of others more
Express gratitude to friends

Love one another is a simple statement but not always simple to live. Our discipleship is lifelong, complicated and challenging but when we don't love well, we have the gift of starting again in the next moment, the next day. Thank God for that! Jesus' mission field was Israel. Our mission is Ventura County. This week as I travel through Israel, I will be praying for all of you and your journey of discipleship so that we too may love others as Jesus loves us and that all those who meet us will see and feel Jesus' love through our actions and words!

Becoming Catholic

Sacraments and the Easter Season

The 50 days of the Easter Season is a time when we reflect more fervently upon the Sacraments. The neophytes, those who celebrated Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion at the Easter Vigil, spend time deepening their understanding of their newly received Sacraments and share in the Eucharist with us every Sunday. Confirmation for our teens and adults as well as First Communion for our children are also celebrated during this joyful season. This is a good time for all of us to reflect on the gift of the Sacraments and give thanks to God for their place in our lives. If you are an adult Catholic who has not yet been confirmed or received First Communion and would like to do so, please contact Catherine Shaddock at (805) 482-6417 x331 or catherine@padreserra.org

Safeguard the Children

If You See Something, Say Something

We see this warning in airports and schools, but experts say it's also a great way for parents to think about online safety for their children. One of the best ways to protect children using the internet is to engage with them in what they're doing: Play the games they play, check out their profile pages with them. Discuss online respect and rules for what can and cannot be shared. Regular conversation and monitoring help keep children safe online. Faith Sharing

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table.

John 13:31-35 ~ Love one another!

The Gospel presents the heart of Jesus' message: "Love one another as I have loved you." His commandment can be a challenge. What will you do this week to deepen the love you have for those around you in life? How would my neighborhood, community and the world be different if we followed Jesus' commandment?

St. John's Seminary

We continue our focus on St. John's Seminary, our nextdoor neighbor and the seminary for our Archdiocese, as we support its mission to prepare men for the priesthood. This year, St. John's has a total of 99 seminarians. Along with their studies at St. John's, men spend an internship year at a parish, working with a pastor-mentor. With the grace of God, 13 seminarians will be ordained as new priests this summer for our Archdiocese as well as for eight other dioceses and religious orders that send men to St. John's. As these deacons enter their final months of prayer and preparation, please keep them in your prayers.
