A FATHER'S DAY BLESSING

*Blessed is the Father who lets the Lord
be his guiding hand,
whose faith brings
his family courage,
whose love comes from God.*

Father's Day Novena Cards

Cards are available in the church lobby for those who wish to enroll their father, living or deceased, in our novena of Masses.

For nine consecutive Masses, your dad will be prayed for in the community during Mass. This prayer tradition has its origin in the 9 days that the apostles prayed in the upper room while they waited for Jesus to send the Holy Spirit. It is concentrated prayer for a specific intention done in a community of love. First Mass June 15.

Questions

Dear Faith Family,

This Sunday's Gospel is a funny one. When the chief priests, scribes and elders approach Jesus to ask Him what seems to be a valid question, Jesus gives them a pretty complex answer. Why is that?

Growing up, I was always raised to believe that I should ask God any questions. While I do think it's true, why is it that Jesus didn't answer the questions posed in the Gospel?

If we look at the tone of the question asked, the chief priests, scribes and elders are obviously trying to bait Jesus into speaking some form of heresy. I would argue that they probably know the answer to the question asked, but are trying to find any way to weaken Christ's impact on the world that he had at the time. Jesus, all the wiser, evaded the question, knowing it's a trap.

I don't know about you, but when I think of the personality of Jesus, I tend to think of His mercy, compassion and unconditional love. Sometimes on reflection, I fail to realize that Christ was also incredibly wise and understood the human person. His wisdom is evident in his "answer" to the question posed.

His answer didn't lack love, nor was it intended to be snarky. Rather, his answer showed that his purpose on earth isn't just for political gain, but his answer showed that he is indeed one with the Father.

I don't know about you, but sometimes I try to bait God into questions that I already know the answers to. Instead of asking for change, I try to be clever to convince God that my way is the right way. These are the questions that tend to be unanswered in my life. Why? Because I don't need to hear what I already know, sometimes.

So what's the purpose of this passage? For me, personally, it teaches me to be earnest in my conversation with God. Our God is all-loving and wants the best for us and wants to answer the pressing questions in our lives. Let's not waste our time asking questions that try to mold God into something that he is not.

God Bless!

Giving

Retirement Fund Archdiocese Priests

Have you ever wondered what happens to our priests after they retire from teaching, preaching and serving? Who takes care of them? Like us, they desire to rest, need care and medical treatment as they grow older. Unlike us, their modest salaries were not meant to provide for them in retirement. Our gifts to this fund are a meaningful investment and true blessing for the care and comfort of our retired spiritual fathers. Envelopes in the church lobby or go to www.la-archdiocese.org → Ways to Give → Priest Retirement Fund. Contact: pam@padreserra.org

Faith Sharing

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table.

Luke 24:46-53 ~ Ascension of Our Lord

Before he ascended, Jesus commissioned his apostles to proclaim to the ends of the earth the good news that God became man, was crucified, died then rose again and now offers his very light, life and love. This too is our commissioning as Jesus' disciples. Let us ponder how far the good news has traveled these past 2,000 years. Where has the good news found you? Where have you spread the good news? What people are the most difficult for you to witness the love of Jesus to?

Safeguard the Children

Know the Dangers of Hot Cars and Keep Children Safe

Summer is coming, we read sad stories in the news about children being left in hot cars. This tragedy can happen to anyone, so it's important to take steps to minimize risks. Don't leave your children in the car, even for a few minutes, when temperatures are high. Even with the windows down, it can get hot inside fast. Don't let your children play in the car. They could easily shut themselves in a hot vehicle without you noticing. Store your purse, wallet, or cell phone in the backseat, next to your child's car seat. You'll reach for those things on your way out, reminding you of a sleeping or quiet child in the backseat.
