Rory Cooney

1. When I see the heavens, the work of your hands,
the moon and the stars which you arranged,
What are we that you keep us in mind?
Your children that you remember at all?
2. Yet you have made us little less than gods,
with glory and honor you crowned us,
Gave us pow'r over the work of your hands,
dominion over all that you have made.
3. All sheep and oxen, birds of the air,
all things that swim in the sea.
Beasts without number, life without names,
you have placed under our feet.

Trinity Sunday

Dear Friends,

Our Scriptures do a lot to illuminate and underpin our belief in the Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, whose Solemnity we celebrate today. In the first reading from Proverbs we hear a beautiful and poetic declaration of the wonder of Creation. It's written in the first person: "I was there when ..." "I was his delight." It speaks as the third person of the holy trinity: "Thus says the wisdom of God."

For Christians there is a long tradition that Old Testament references to wisdom are in fact references to the Holy Spirit, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. So in this reading we have Wisdom detailing how he was there as all came to be. But it's at the end of the passage that I think we hear something very important:

"... then was I beside him as his craftsman,
and I was his delight day by day,
playing before him all the while,
playing on the surface of his earth;
and I found delight in the human race."

Here we have a description of creation from the very beginning, and God finding delight in us (and our ancestors). Sometimes we can lose sight of this very basic tenet of our faith – that God created us fundamentally good; so good, in fact, that God became one of us in order to redeem us and restore us to the union with him that we had broken. "Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ" (Romans 5:1).

The gospel reading (John 16:12-15) has Jesus speaking to his disciples in a very comforting way, preparing them, perhaps, for the coming challenges of his mission – his passion, death, resurrection and ascension. "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth."

He [the Spirit] will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you.
Everything that the Father has is mine;
for this reason I told you that he [again, the Spirit] will take from what is mine and declare it to you."

Friends, we can never fully understand the mystery of the Holy Trinity. We accept Three Persons, One God, on faith. Today's Scriptures are there to help us contemplate these truths.

Siempre Adelante,

Dominic MacAller

Faith Sharing

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table.

John 16:12-15 ~ God is love

John's gospel passage is part of Jesus' discourse to the disciples the night before his death. He promised to send the Spirit to the disciples to comfort and strengthen them after he had gone to the Father. Just as Jesus was the revealer of God, so the Spirit revealed God to the disciples. Today we celebrate this relationship of love among the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Have you ever given something important to someone else as a sign of your love for them? Have you ever experienced the Holy Spirit as a similar gift to you?

Audiovisual Ministry

This is a fairly new ministry at Padre Serra, but one that will inevitably grow and deepen.

We are looking for people to help "mix" sound at Mass and at some Serra Center events, but this will likely expand to other responsibilities sooner rather than later. Training will be provided.

If you're interested, please contact Bill Giles at audiovisual@padreserra.org who is coordinating this exciting ministry.
