If you are an inactive Catholic, you might consider Landings. We are a group of Catholics who, for different reasons, were away from or had issues with the church and came back to regular attendance and active participation.

We share our faith journeys and want to hear your stories. We also discuss contemporary Catholic themes and have resources available for questions about the Catholic faith and the Church.

We invite you to come and explore the possibilities!

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 90: In Every Age

Timothy R. Smith

1. You return us to dust,
saying, "Return, O children, to earth."
For to you a thousand years
are like yesterday passed,
or as a watch of the night.
2. You sweep us away in a dream.
At dawn we are like morning grass
that rises to the morning sun,
then withers and fades.
3. Teach us to treasure our days.
Give wisdom to our hearts.
Return, O Lord, how long must we wait?
Pity your servants.
4. Fill our day-break with your love that we may rejoice in song.
May your gracious eye watch over us and the work of our hands.

Blessed be Your name
In the land that is plentiful
Where Your streams of abundance flow
Blessed be Your name

Blessed be Your name
When I'm found in the desert place
Though I walk through the wilderness
Blessed be Your name

REFRAIN:

Ev-'ry bless-ing You pour out I'll turn back to praise.

When the dark-ness clos-es in, Lord, still I will say,

"Bless-ed be the name of the Lord, bless-ed be Your name. Bless-ed be the name of the Lord, bless-ed be Your glo-ri-ous name."

Blessed be Your name
When the sun's shining down on me
When the world's all as it should be
Blessed be Your name

Blessed be Your name
On the road marked with suffering
Though there's pain in the offering
Blessed be Your name

Every blessing You pour out I'll turn back to praise...

Finance Council

For the past thirty years, our family has been a part of the Padre Serra Community. We have worked, served and prayed alongside wonderful individuals who have been generous in their financial giving and their participation in parish ministries. While becoming involved in these ministries I have witnessed firsthand our parishioners' generosity, goodwill and kindness.

Many of you may not be aware that there is a parish finance council. The finance council's main focus is to review financial matters of the parish, to act in an advisory capacity, and to provide guidance to our parish leaders. The finance council members have diverse financial experiences, which is beneficial in providing sound financial advice that will help fulfill the vision and mission of the parish. The current members of the finance council are: Fr. Patrick, Jerry DeVillers, Chase Lichtenstein, Laura Meissner, Kathy Milner, Gene West, Kevin Hrabovsky and Joe Loll.

I remember as a young boy growing up in our family of six, that we always helped and supported our parish community. My parents looked upon our parish as part of our extended family so weekly giving was part of our commitment to the parish. Since then, it has become a tradition as part of our family too. Our financial contributions go to support Padre Serra parish in many ways, including to assist the neediest among us, to keep our church community informed in its current Catholicity, and to provide a welcoming environment where our community spirit will continue to grow.

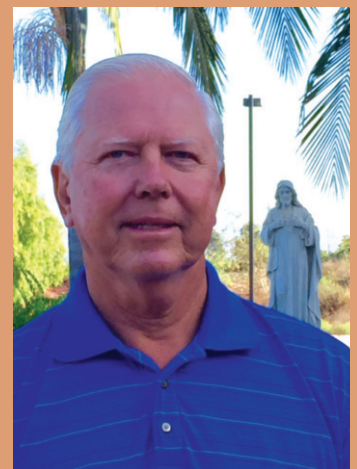

We don't want to be in a situation that Jesus warned about in today's gospel, "This one began to build but did not have the resources to finish." Our focus needs to be not only on our current results but we also need to be sure that we have the financial resources to meet the needs of the parish community on a long-term basis. This is the finance challenge of our parish: to meet the short-term needs while preparing for the major expenditures that are inevitable with the aging of the physical structures of the parish. With your support we can accomplish these goals.

Thank you for your continued support of Padre Serra parish through your prayers, financial giving and ministry participation. "One individual cannot possibly make a difference alone. It is individual efforts, collectively, that make a noticeable difference — all the difference in the world." - Jane Goodall.

Siempre adelante,

Joe Loll

Becoming Catholic

The Catholic Way of Life

Catholicism is not merely a set of doctrines to which we give assent. It is a way of life rooted in a love relationship with Jesus and with each other. So one does not become a Catholic simply by attending classes. Seekers "catch being Catholic" by entering into the life of the parish: attending Mass, participating in parish activities, building relationships, and serving others. This is a gradual process and the time it takes varies with the particular background and circumstances of each seeker. It is a faith journey which all of us share as we encourage one another along the way. The purpose of the Tuesday evening meetings is to assist the seekers as they strive to enter fully into the Catholic way of life. For more information contact Catherine Shaddock at (805) 482-6417 x331 or catherine@padreserra.org

Faith Sharing

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table.

Luke 14:25-33 ~ Commitment is required to follow Jesus

Today's Gospel is demanding. Jesus tells his disciples that they must renounce their possessions and take up their cross in order to be His disciple. This is true for us as modern people. What cross are you being asked to carry right now? Is there a possession that does not lead to fullness of life?
