RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 146: Praise the Lord, My Soul

Timothy R. Smith

1. The Lord is faithful forever, giving justice to the oppressed
and food to the hungry.
The Lord frees all the captives.

2. The Lord restores the blinded and straightens those bowed low.
The Lord protects the stranger;
the Lord loves the just.

3. The Lord guards widows and orphans,
but the way of the wicked he blocks.
The Lord shall reign forever,
for every generation.

Comfort the Afflicted ... or Afflict the Comfortable?

Dear Friends,

If you're like me, you occasionally catch yourself in your own self-centeredness and remember (for a moment, anyway) that to be a disciple of Jesus Christ is to care for and to serve others.

Today's gospel story is of the rich man who dined sumptuously each day while the poor man Lazarus (not the same Lazarus that Jesus raises from the dead in the gospel of John) languishes at his door. Lazarus is quite literally dying for scraps from the rich man's table, and suffering the indignity of dogs licking his sores.

In the first reading, the prophet Amos warns "Woe to the complacent ... they shall be the first to go into exile, and their wanton revelry shall be done away with." It's a little unsettling, isn't it? And so is the fate of the rich man who ends up in torment in the netherworld.

In today's responsorial psalm we sing that the LORD:

- Keeps faith forever
- Secures justice for the oppressed (what will that look like for the non-oppressed, or the oppressors?)
- Gives food to the hungry
- Sets captives free
- Gives sight to the blind
- Raises up the lowly
- Loves the just
- Protects strangers
- Sustains widows and orphans
- But thwarts the way of the wicked
- Shall reign forever, through all generations

How does the LORD accomplish these things today? He ascended into heaven 2000+ years ago. In the 16th Century, St. Teresa of Avila said it this way: "Christ has no body now but yours, no hands but yours to heal the wounded world; no eyes but yours to gaze with compassion; no feet but yours to walk this world with mercy and justice."

So, when we are roused from our complacency and see the suffering of others around us, it is up to us to act, to care, to share. St. Paul says to Timothy in today's second reading "I charge you before God, who gives life to all things, and before Christ Jesus ... to keep the commandment without stain or reproach until the appearance of our Lord Jesus Christ." The commandment to which Paul refers could be the Great Commandment: Love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your mind, and all your strength and love your neighbor as yourself.

Someone once said that the Word of God doesn't just comfort the afflicted, it also afflicts the comfortable. I think this is one of those Sundays. Kyrie eleison!

Siempre Adelante,

Music and Liturgy Minister

Faith Sharing

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table.

Luke 16:19-31 ~ Keep your eye on God's way of life.

Christianity isn't just a societal institution formed by members of geographical parishes. We aren't just members of a club. To be a follower of Jesus, a disciple, we are called to go beyond our comfortable neighborhood to care for the poor, near and far, in our consciousness, interactions and even fiscal decisions. Today's gospel tells us that we are judged by what we do or don't do for the poor and needy. How are you currently reaching out to those in need? What more could you do?

Becoming Catholic

The Sacraments

The seven sacraments are essential to the Catholic way of life. They are blessed encounters with the risen Jesus. Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist are called the Sacraments of Initiation because they incorporate us into the saving death and resurrection. Baptism and Confirmation are not repeatable because they give us an "indelible mark" as a member of the Body of Christ. Eucharist, the high point of our initiation, can be received daily, but at least on Sundays. The Eucharist nourishes and strengthens us to live as disciples of Jesus. It is also a sign of unity with Jesus and with each other. If you would like to investigate receiving the Sacraments of Initiation, please contact Catherine Shaddock at (805) 482-56417 x331 or catherine@padreserra.org

Homeboy

Tuesday, October 15
7:00 pm, Serra Center

Doors open at 6:30 pm

Homeboy Industries is the largest gang-intervention, rehabilitation, and re-entry program in the world. Homeboy provides hope, training, and support to formerly gang-involved and previously incarcerated men and women, to redirect their lives and become contributing members of the community.

While Fr. Greg was initially scheduled to be here and regrets that he is called away, we have the unique opportunity to see Fr. G and Homeboys Industries through the eyes of the people who know him best.

Representative Homeboys will be with us to share the stories that brought them to Fr. G and how he and his outreach ministry forever changed their lives.

*Free. RSVP at www.padreserra.org/news/homeboy
Sponsored by the Adult Faith Formation Team*
