Each year the Church honors all the saints, named and unknown, with a special feast day. Come to mass to thank God for their example and friendship, and to strengthen us on our journey to be saints in our ordinary lives.

The Saints are not just those we look up to as examples of living holy lives. They are our friends in heaven. We believe that, together with them, we are one Church. They care deeply about us and we can ask them to pray for us as we journey to join them in heaven.

Pope Francis reminds us that we can all be holy in the context of our ordinary lives. He tells us that holy ones are not gloomy but "joyful and full of good humor."

Mass of Remembrance

Saturday, November 2, 5:00 pm

We invite everyone to remember and celebrate the lives of our loved ones who have gone before us to live in the light of the Lord.

Names of your beloved departed will be collected and included in our Memorial Bowl, offered in our gathering procession and presentation of gifts. You may also bring a photo of your departed ones 30 minutes before Mass and place it on the altar corner steps.

Submit names today in the courtyard or at filipinoministry@padreserra.org or www.padreserra.org/news/remembrance by October 28

GATHERING*10,000 Reasons (Bless the Lord)

Jonas Myrin &amp; Matt Redman

1. The sun comes up, it's a new day dawning,
It's time to sing Your song again.
Whatever may pass, and whatever lies before me,
Let me be singing when the evening comes.
2. You're rich in love and You're slow to anger.
Your name is great and Your heart is kind.
For all Your goodness, I will keep on singing;
Ten thousand reasons for my heart to find.
3. And on that day, when my strength is failing,
The end draws near, and my time has come;
Still, my soul will sing Your praise unending
Ten thousand years and then forevermore!

Highlighting the Altar Server Ministry

Dear Friends,

Reflecting on our lives as Catholic Christians, I have come to the conclusion that during our liturgies we are a people who are always moving toward someone or someplace with enthusiasm and joy. The use of parades for civic occasions and of processions for religious motives is common to all peoples. The Hebrew Testament and the Christian Testament provide biblical bases for the Judaeo-Christian practice of processions. The Christian procession is tied closely to the idea of pilgrimage. Life for us is a journey from one place to another. A journey becomes a pilgrimage when it is undertaken for God and seeks God as its ultimate goal. The great example of all this is, the pilgrimage of the People of Israel out of the bondage of Egypt through the desert to the promised land.

What does this insight have to do with altar servers? Are the altar servers involved in processions? Absolutely! At each liturgy, our altar servers are involved in both functional and special processions. The functional processions include the entrance and closing processions, procession of the gifts, the Gospel Procession, minor processions to the altar to bring up the chalice, the Sacramentary, communion cups, purificators and bread plates. And of course the Communion Procession which is the ritual expression of our identity as fellow pilgrims on a journey together to the heavenly banquet, singing as we walk.

Servers serve the prayer life of the assembly. They remind us of our journey toward the Lord. They know how to walk in the sacred space. They know the direction and they have a sense of purpose. They do not call attention to themselves. They facilitate worship with focus, moving from one place to another, making it happen easily with care and grace. By their actions they point to what is important and they lead the processions by example.

Altar servers are the youthful members of our community, they energize us and remind us of our journeying toward the Lord. They lead us silently, providing focus as to what is important in our liturgies.

In closing, I leave you with the words of Psalm 100: "Shout joy to the Lord, serve the Lord with gladness, enter God's presence with joy and enter the temple with thanks and praise." Our altar servers give joy to our hearts as they lead us in the many processions toward the God who calls us by name.

In Christ,

Bob Shadduck
Altar Server Ministry Director

Faith Sharing

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table.

Luke 18:9-14 ~ God knows and sees our hearts.

In the parable of the Pharisee and the tax collector, Jesus contrasts the attitudes of two people praying. The paradox here is that God preferred the prayer of the tax collector. In the parable, Jesus once again combats the self-righteous attitudes that threaten spiritual growth. God knows when we are doing things just for show, and when they come from the goodness of our heart. When have you caught yourself doing something just to be more popular, liked, pious or righteous? How does it feel to do something that you know is good and just?

Becoming Catholic

Dismissal of the Catechumens

Every Sunday at 9:00 am Mass, a group of children, teens, and adults are called forward to the presiding priest's chair after the homily. These are our catechumens, those preparing for Baptism at the Easter Vigil. They are sent forth from the church as the assembly sings, "May the word of God strengthen you ..." They follow the Book of the Gospels, held high by a catechist, to small meeting rooms (one for the adults, another for the children) to reflect more deeply on the readings they have just heard. They talk about the significance of the scriptures, especially the Gospel, in their own lives. It is an encounter with Jesus, and they are strengthening their resolve to live as his disciples. Please pray for our 14 catechumens as they journey toward the Sacraments. If you would like to know more about the process of becoming Catholic, please contact Catherine Shadduck at (805) 482-6417 x331 or catherine@padreserra.org

Starting Again from Our WHY

Fr. Parker Sandoval
Tuesday, November 5
7:00 pm, Serra Center
Doors open at 6:30
for refreshments

WHY is the great question of mission. Sometimes, we can forget the WHY of the Church. A clear sense of WHY, however, changes what we do as Church and how we do it. The WHY of the Church, in fact, is really a WHO: Jesus! Renewal in the life of the Church means starting again from our WHY. Come renew your sense of missionary discipleship.

Ordained from St. John's Seminary in 2015, Fr. Parker is the Director of Adult Faith Formation for the Archdiocese of Los Angeles.

No cost. Please RSVP at www.padreserra.org/news/starting-again
Sponsored by the Adult Faith Formation Team.

for the holidays

Our St. Vincent de Paul ministry has identified many needy families in our community.

With the holidays fast approaching, you are invited to share your blessings with these families through our Adopt-A-Family giving program this Christmas.

The commitment is to purchase a gift for each family member from a list of gift ideas/needs from the families.

Questions or to participate:

Thank you!
