GATHERINGBlessed Be Your Name

Matt Redman & Beth Redman

Blessed be Your name
In the land that is plentiful
Where Your streams of abundance flow
Blessed be Your name

Blessed be Your name
When I'm found in the desert place
Though I walk through the wilderness
Blessed be Your name

REFRAIN: Ev-'ry bless-ing You pour out I'll turn back to praise.

When the dark-ness clos-es in, Lord, still I will say,

"Bless-ed be the name of the Lord, bless-ed be Your name. Bless-ed be the name of the Lord, bless-ed be Your glo-ri-ous name."

Blessed be Your name
When the sun's shining down on me
When the world's all as it should be
Blessed be Your name

Blessed be Your name
On the road marked with suffering
Though there's pain in the offering
Blessed be Your name

Every blessing You pour out I'll turn back to praise...

God of the Living

Dear Friends,

At this time of year the daylight hours grow shorter as the nights become longer and colder. Leaves drop from the trees which seem to go into a suspended period of dormancy. And here in California, raging winds with their accompanying wildfires have become the “new normal.” These natural forces can turn our thoughts to the death of our loved ones, our own inevitable death and even to wondering about the end of the world. Many cultures, past and present, have customs, observances or rituals in the fall to deal with these realities, to remember departed loved ones and even to laugh at death.

The Church, in her wisdom, gives us HOPE at this time of year by focusing on resurrection and on God’s immeasurable love, mercy and faithfulness. As the liturgical year comes to an end over the next three weeks, the scriptures read at Mass may seem at first to be frightening and ominous, but their message is ultimately about God’s gift of eternal life. As Jesus tells us in today’s Gospel, God “is not God of the dead but of the living, for to him all are alive.”

The Resurrection is foundational to our Christian faith. At the end of the Apostle’s Creed, which we recite on Sunday, we say that we “believe in the resurrection of the body and life everlasting.” Jesus’ resurrection is a promise of eternal life for all of us.

How do you imagine heaven will be? With our human limitations of understanding we use terms like paradise, banquet, clothed in white robes, shining like stars, being like angels, bathed in pure light. Or we think that heaven will be a better version of this life. But the life that God has in mind for us is beyond anything we can imagine!

For me, the most meaningful expression of heaven is this: God is LOVE and has loved us all into being. Ultimately we will be enfolded by the loving arms of God, Father, Son and Spirit, into their perfect bond of eternal love. What an existence that will be!

Blessings,

Catherine Shadduck
Initiation Coordinator

Faith Sharing

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table.

Luke 20:27-38 ~ God is not a God of the dead but the living.

In the gospel, the issue of resurrection is raised by the Sadducees, who did not believe in life after death. But Jesus did and teaches us through his resurrection that we have hope beyond the grave, and the best is yet to come. What does the hopefulness of life everlasting give you? How do you think others will remember you after your death?

Angel Tags

Begin Saturday, November 16

You can help over 1,100 children and adults have a special Christmas morning! Simply select a tag from the trees in church, buy at least one of the items listed, wrap it, and attach the Angel Tag firmly to the outside of the package. Please return to church no later than 9:00 am on December 8. All gifts leave the parish at noon to be delivered to their respective locations.

This year we are collecting gifts for RAIN, OASIS, Ventura County Youth Correctional Facility, St. Francis Parish in Fillmore, San Salvador Mission in Piru, and Immaculate Conception Parish in New Cuyama.

Geralyn Moody, (805) 491-2602.
