RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 104: Lord, Send Out Your Spirit

Jeanne Cotter

1. I praise you, Lord God, with all my heart.
You are glorious and majestic. Our Lord,
by your wisdom, you made so many things;
the whole earth is covered with your living creatures.
2. You created all of them by your Spirit, and you give new life to the earth.
Our Lord, we pray that your glory will last forever
And that you will be pleased with what you have done.

Our Domestic Church

My Dear Fellow Parishioners,

Today, fifty days after Easter, we celebrate Pentecost Sunday which marks the end of the Church's glorious Easter Season. What a strange season it has been as we isolate ourselves in our homes and celebrate Mass via livestream! Under normal circumstances, today also would have marked the end of the initiation process (RCIA) for those who would have been initiated at the Easter Vigil. Alas, they are still awaiting the day when it will be safe to gather in the church building again to celebrate baptisms, Confirmations and the reception of Eucharist. Also longing for the sacraments are our First Communion and Confirmation candidates and the parents of little ones waiting to be baptized. Let us hold them all in prayer that they do not become discouraged, rather that this time of anticipation will bring its own unique graces.

Pentecost is also considered the "birthday of the Church" as described in our first reading today from The Acts of the Apostles. This year, sequestered in my home with my husband for fear of COVID-19, I can relate more than ever before to the account of the disciples hiding for fear of meeting the same death as Jesus. Yet, with the coming of the Holy Spirit whom Jesus had promised to send as an Advocate, we hear that their fear was replaced by a fervor to spread the Good News of Jesus who is Messiah and Lord, crucified and risen.

Reflecting on all this, I feel a connection between the Church's first birthday at Pentecost and the rebirth of the Domestic Church (the Church lived in our households) that we see resurging under the guidance of the Holy Spirit during the current pandemic. On the parish website, Facebook and Instagram pages you can see photos of home prayer centers (little altars), children working on their Faith Formation lessons under the guidance of parents or older siblings, and (most importantly) families participating in, not just watching, Sunday Mass livestreamed from our parish church. Some households are making banners, posters or sidewalk chalk-drawings to thank the delivery people serving them. In many various ways we are witnessing the Good News to one another in our homes and in our neighborhoods.

I miss seeing all of you ... terribly! Let's hope and pray that we will be together again soon in our beautiful Padre Serra Church building ... AND that the religious practices we have begun in our own homes will continue to flourish even after the pandemic has passed.

Blessings,

Catherine

Faith Sharing Question

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table.

John 20:19-23 ~ We have been given the gift of the Holy Spirit.

In today's Gospel, the disciples pass from a state of fear to joy. Jesus breathes his Spirit on them, and he commissions the disciples to continue his mission on earth. Enlivened by the Spirit, the disciples are empowered to make the presence of God known throughout the world. Reflect and share about times when you felt the power of the Spirit, giving you the right words, giving you insight into a dilemma, or in other ways.

Share

Share with us how you are living out your faith at home. Use #pspLivingFaith and tag @padreserraparish (Facebook), @padreserra (Instagram), or send your images in "Actual Size" or the largest size available to photos@padreserra.org

1. Get creative with items around your home. Choose a red cloth, a cross, a Bible, a candle (you can use a paper flame in case you cannot light a candle)

- You can cut a sheet of paper into seven pieces. Write one gift (Piety, Fear of the Lord, Wisdom, Fortitude, Counsel, Knowledge, Understanding) on each piece of paper, place them in a bowl, cup, or directly on your prayer space.
- Each day choose a different gift from your prayer space and take time to reflect on how you can practice that gift. You can write this in a journal or share it with God in a conversation, or you can place each "gift" around your home, invite a person to choose which gift you and your family can live out that day.

Be creative!

2. Choose an activity to celebrate Pentecost today!

Volunteers

We Need Your Help

The new guidelines require volunteers for some of the new safety and health requirements involved in resuming Masses. In the words of the archbishop, "High risk individuals (e.g., people who are 65 and older, who are immunocompromised or who have underlying health conditions) should be discouraged from serving in any capacity that brings them into contact with others." With that in mind any parishioner of high school age or older, who is not health compromised, is asked to consider assisting us in one of the following ways:

- We need many volunteers, either to exchange unused chairs for clean ones, or to sanitize the chairs in place between the Masses.
- Because we can only have 100 attendees for the time being, we need volunteers to guide parishioners and count them as they enter.
- We need to create a rotation on the tech team to serve as camera operators for livestreaming.
- The state has asked us to take temperatures, make sure all have masks, and ensure use of hand sanitizing before entrance into the body of the church. We will need volunteers to assist us in those tasks. We are in the process of gathering safety equipment to make this possible in as secure a way as possible.
- The archbishop has also allowed us to open our holy places for prayer, but only so long as there is someone to oversee the safety of all who come. So the parish needs parishioners to serve as hosts at the Blessed Sacrament Chapel. We will determine the opening hour based on the availability of willing hosts.

If you can assist in any of these tasks, email jane@padreserra.org

CHILDREN'S MASS ACTIVITY SHEET

(activities are meant to be done at certain times during the Mass so watch carefully!)

Today is _____ Sunday.

What color is the priest wearing? Green purple white red rose Every Liturgy celebration begins by Father Patrick saying... "In the name of the _____ and the _____ and the _____"

Listen carefully to the first reading, color in each image when you hear it mentioned.

Wind

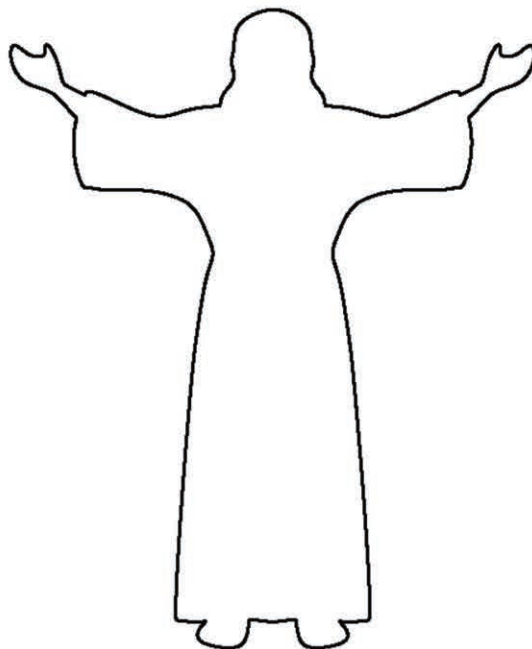

Tongues of fire

speaking in many languages

In the second reading we are reminded we are one body in Christ. Draw your Family in the image when you hear these words.

In our Gospel, we hear Jesus greet his disciples saying: "P__ __ __ e be with you".

He breathed on them and said to them "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven, whose sins you retain are retained."

After you see Father Patrick lift up the cup, or chalice, and say "Do this in memory of me", color the image below.

At the end of Mass Fr. Patrick Blesses us saying "In the name of _____ and the _____ and the _____."

And sends us off saying "Go now in _____, to glorify God with your _____."

You did it. Great job paying close attention during Mass!
