How to Vote Like a Catholic

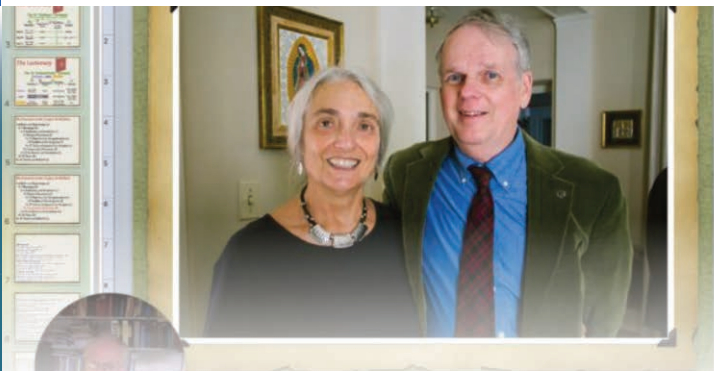

Dr. Janice Daurio
Tuesday, September 29
7:00 pm via Zoom

We are Republicans and Democrats, Independents and unaffiliated. But our most intimate identity is our membership in the Body of Christ. Why do Catholics vote and how do we vote as Catholics?

Learn how you can vote conscientiously as a person of faith. We encourage questions to be submitted ahead of the evening; email Dr. Daurio at jdaurio@mac.com or upon registration.

Free event. Pre-registration required at www.padreserra.org/vote

Sponsored by the Adult Faith Formation Team

Living Liturgy

Dr. Paul Ford offers a weekly reflection and study of the upcoming Sunday scriptures to understand better the good news message of Jesus Christ and how He is present in our lives.

Until we can meet in person again, he will email a pre-recorded lesson each week.

Dominic MacAller

1. Ev'ry day will I bless you, praise your name forever and ever.
Praise the great Lord on high, whose greatness, whose greatness cannot be searched.
2. The Lord is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and full of kindness.
The Lord is good to all, and compassionate, compassionate to all his works.
3. With eyes of hope we look to you, and you feed us in your due season.
You opened wide your hand, and for all who live, you satisfy our hearts' desire.

Refrain

1. I will sing God's praises all the days that I shall live.
My soul will glory in my God, the lowly will hear and be glad.
O glorify God's name with me, together let us rejoice.
2. For God has heard my anguished cries, and delivered me from all my foes.
O look to God that you might shine, your faces be radiant with joy.
3. When the poor cry out, God hears and saves them,
rescues them from their distress.
God's angel watches near to those who look to their God to save them.
4. O taste and see that God is good, how happy the ones who find refuge.
The mighty shall grow weak and hungry, those who seek God lack nothing.
5. Come, my children, hear me. I will teach you the fear of God.
Come, all of you who thirst for life and seek joy in all of your days.
6. For God is close to the brokenhearted, near to those crushed in spirit.
The hand of God redeems your life, a refuge for all those who seek.

Spiritual Communion

O God, you are my God,
it is you I seek!
For you my body yearns;
for you my soul thirsts,
in the land parched,
lifeless and without water.
I look to you in the sanctuary
to see your power and glory.
For your love is better than life,
my lips shall ever praise you.
I will bless you as long as I live;
I will lift up my hands,
calling on your name.
My soul shall be filled,
as with choice food,
with joyous lips my mouth
shall praise you!
I think of you upon my bed,
I remember you through the watches of night.
You indeed are my savior and,
in the shadow of your wings,
I shout for joy.
My soul clings fast to you;
your right hand upholds me.

Dear Parish Family,

Happy Catechetical Sunday to you all. On this day we celebrate the importance of passing on the faith and being witnesses to the Gospel. The root of the word Catechesis comes from a Greek word meaning “to echo, or resound.” Catechism is the act of resounding or bringing the Church’s teachings to the world. A catechist is one who teaches in the name of the Church. This ministry of teaching in the name of the Church has a profound dignity, which is why catechists are formally commissioned by the Church.

“The 2020 Catechetical Sunday theme is taken from St. Paul’s first letter to the Corinthians, “I Received from the Lord what I also Handed on to You.” This theme focuses on the essential work of catechesis, which is an invitation to a whole new life given by Christ Himself. It emphasizes that living faith necessitates movement, inspiring all those who hear the Word to share it as witnesses of the true and living God.” - Bishop Robert Barron; USCCB

On this day we not only highlight the work of catechists in parishes and schools, but we also commend parents and guardians and encourage them to take seriously their role of making their Catholic households a place where faith is passed on to the next generation. Parents are truly the primary catechists of their children. This has become even more evident this year, with the pandemic, so many of you became not only academic teachers, but with the closures of the church buildings, you became the main source of faith to the children in your life. Building the domestic church; recognizing that it’s not the building, but the gathering of believers that makes the Church.

This is why the rite of blessing of catechists used on Catechetical Sunday includes a blessing of parents and guardians. You too will be commissioned and blessed, in your vocation and mission. To all catechists in our lives, parents and grandparents, priests and deacons, religious sisters, church family, all who have been encounters of Jesus in our lives, we thank you!

Children

12 months to Grade 8.

Faith Formation's New Year Begins!

We are so excited to begin our 20/21 program year. This year we welcome 327 children and teens. This year will look different from other years because of the pandemic; however, the CFF team is working hard to make this a great year. All Children's Faith Formation programs will begin the year with distance learning for all grades.

We are adopting a new curriculum for our Elementary Spark!

Program. Families have the option of using technology, accessing lessons, songs, and videos from our eportal. They may also eliminate screen time by using just the textbook and material packet that will be provided. There is also the flexibility to do the one-hour lesson all at once or break it down into bite sizes that works with the families' busy schedules. Families will have the support of 20 Catechists and our Coordinators throughout the year.

Three: Sixteen, our Middle School Ministry, will gather via Zoom until we can safely return on campus. They will continue to use the Break Through the Bible; this year, we have a special focus on the Works of Mercy. Though we will have a smaller group this year, we expect it to be filled with making new friends and reconnection with old ones. We plan to incorporate fun activities, such as games and movie nights, and a retreat.

Little Church welcomes back our youngest children with distance learning. LC Coordinator Mrs. Soraya will lead some of the sessions via Zoom, and parents will lead some weeks' lessons at home. Be prepared to sing, dance, and play games as the children learn about how much they are loved by God and are introduced to their Friend Jesus. We still have spaces available!

For more information, visit www.padreserra.org/children

Thank you for your continuous support; please let us know how we can serve you.

Youth & Young Adults

Everyone 14 to 39ish is welcome!

We Keep Moving Forward - Join Us!

Hi Everyone! I just wanted to give you all an update on the various youth and young adult ministries that have been happening throughout this pandemic.

When we got the lockdown orders, it was a very scary time, but our parish youth and young adults responded with great courage. Swiftly, we decided to implement Zoom meetings, and it was a great success. While it is still a little strange to meet via the internet (especially when we are so used to seeing each other in person weekly), we have adapted to great avail.

We can't wait for the opportunity to meet at the parish again, but our youth and young adults have been very active in their respective ministries. Plenty of youth have invited friends to 4:12 (some from out of state and of different faiths), the Young Adult Ministry has met for a weekly Bible Study (with some fun game nights thrown in) and has ushered the newly graduated teens into the ministry. And even Confirmation didn't lose momentum with the implementation of breakout groups, which led to a handful of wonderful and faith-filled Confirmation liturgies in July and August. There have even been young men and women's ministries that have blossomed from this fork in the road.

We continue to meet most weeks, and we are excited about the upcoming faith year when Y1 Confirmation and Peer Leader meetings will start again!

If you would like more information on the Zoom meetings, please follow us on Instagram @pspyouth and @pspyoungadult, or email me the day of the meeting so I can send you the code!

In his letter to the Philippians, Paul talked about doing "fruitful labor" (Philippians 1:22). If we want our work for God to be fruitful, too, we have to combine two things—our willing heart and God's guidance.

Think of this as you draw a line from each fruit to its outline.

Then say the words to make a delicious combination.
