Since he was a righteous man...

St. Joseph from the Sacred Scriptures with Fr. Patrick Mullen

Monday, May 17, 7:00 - 8:30 pm, via Zoom

Only Jesus, among all humans, chose his biological father, entrusting his helpless infant self into Joseph's hands. Using the Bible as our starting point, our evening will look at this marvelous, enigmatic, and selfless man as we celebrate the "Year of St. Joseph." By examining him, perhaps we could solidify our righteousness as disciples of the Son he adopted. Join Fr. Patrick Mullen in this powerful enlightening presentation.

Rev. J. Patrick Mullen serves as Pastor at Padre Serra Parish in Camarillo, CA. He received his doctorate in biblical studies (New Testament) from the Graduate Theological Union in 1999. He served for over 20 years as a professor of Scripture at St. John's Seminary in Camarillo. Mullen is the author of Dining with Pharisees, a regular contributor to "Weekday Homily Helps," and a speaker for Now You Know Media and is a nationally known speaker and lecturer.

It's time to sing Your song again.
Whatever may pass, and whatever lies before me,
Let me be singing when the evening comes.

Your name is great and Your heart is kind.
For all Your goodness, I will keep on singing;

Spiritual Communion

O God, you are my God,
it is you I seek!
For you my body yearns;
for you my soul thirsts,
in the land parched,
lifeless and without water.
I look to you in the sanctuary
to see your power and glory.
For your love is better than life,
my lips shall ever praise you.
I will bless you as long as I live;
I will lift up my hands,
calling on your name.
My soul shall be filled,
as with choice food,
with joyous lips my mouth
shall praise you!
I think of you upon my bed,
I remember you through the watches of night.
You indeed are my savior and,
in the shadow of your wings,
I shout for joy.
My soul clings fast to you;
your right hand upholds me.

Psalms 63:2-9

Remain in me, as I remain in you

Dear parish family,

As I reflected on this Sunday's Gospel, there is so much our Lord is telling us. There is one phrase that really stood out to me: "Remain in me, as I remain in you." Jesus tells us he is the vine and we are his branches, which means we are an extension of him. It brings me to the expression we all use of the "Family Tree." We talk about our roots, what our grandparents or great-grandparents have passed on to us. It's who we are. How many of us follow in our parents' or grandparents' steps, in their career or talents? We do this out of love and to honor them.

In this same way I see that Jesus is reminding us, that we are part of him. We are created in God's image (Gen. 1:27). We are spiritual beings too; we have the ability to give love and goodness. If we stay rooted in him we will bear much fruit. It is in Jesus that we are fed, in Communion. It is Jesus who sustains and strengthens us. "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me" (Philippians 4:13).

Our Lord doesn't ask too much from us, it is a simple request and it is for our own well-being. Remain in me, as I remain in you. Be present, be part of me, I am setting down the foundation for you, continue my work. It is up to us to remain rooted in our Lord, for if we choose not to, we will wither away, bear no fruit.

May the beautiful bloom of spring remind us at every turn that we are rooted in God, and may we always remain in Him.

Blessings,

Tere Delgado
