GATHERING

Palm Sunday Processional

Rory Cooney, Gather #496

- P Cantor:
1. When they heard that Jesus was coming,
 2. Spread their cloaks and branches before him,
 3. Blest is he, like David before him.
 4. Guiding cloud and pillar of fire,
 5. Vision blest, and hope for the future,
 6. Wondrous bread and stream in the dessert,
 7. Eye of God, who sees to the heart of us,
 8. Rising sun, the light of the world,
 9. Friend in death, who weeps for our dying,
 10. Friend in death, who wakes us to new life,

- Cantor:*
1. All the people went out to meet him.
 2. Children sang, with palm branches waving.
 3. Blest is he, God's blessing upon him.
 4. Satan's foe and friend of the sinner.
 5. God's beloved, radiant with glory.
 6. Heav'nly food and God's living water.
 7. Healing touch and sight for our blindness.
 8. Word of life, who gives us the Spirit.
 9. Friend in death, who rolls back the stone for us.
 10. Friend in life: we sing glad hosannas.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 22: My God, My God

Christopher Walker

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1. All who see me deride me,
curl their lips and toss their heads.
He trusted in the Lord; let him save him,
let him release him if this is his friend. | 3. They divide my clothes among them.
They cast lots for my robe;
O Lord, do not leave me alone!
You are my strength; make haste to help me. |
| 2. Many dogs surround me,
and wicked men assault me.
They tear holes in my hands and my feet;
I can count every one of by bones. | 4. I will tell your name to my people.
Where they gather I will praise you.
All who fear God give praise and give glory.
Israel revere God the Lord. |

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
 who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again
 from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God
 the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge
 the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.
 Amen.

*May the Lord accept the sacrifice at
 your hands,
 for the praise and glory of
 His Name,
 for our good
 and the good of all His holy Church.*

SENDING FORTH

We Proclaim Christ Crucified

Bob Hurd

We pro-claim Christ cru-ci-fied, a stumb-ling block and fool-ish-ness.

We pro-claim Christ cru-ci-fied, the wis-dom of God.

1. Christ the living sign of God's love in the temple of his body: "Destroy this temple and in three days I shall raise it up."
2. Baptized into the Lord Jesus, we are called to share his dying so that as he was raised in glory we may walk in his new life.
3. By the Lamb once slain but risen God has brought us out of slav'ry; let us keep this Sabbath holy in the breaking of the bread.
4. Sharing in this meal of Jesus, we embrace his paschal journey: there is no rising without dying — no crown without the cross.
5. For the foolishness of God is wiser than all human wisdom and the weakness of God is stronger than all our human strength.

Text: Refrain and Verse 5 based on 1 Corinthians 1:22-25. Verses 1-3 based on John 2:18-22; Romans 6:3-4; Exodus 20:1, 8. Text and music © 2003, Bob Hurd. Published by OCP Publications. All rights reserved.

Matt Maher & Matt Redman

See his body, his blood, know that he has overcome every trial we will face.
None too lost to be saved, none too broken or ashamed.
All are welcome in this place.

By your mercy we come to your table...

BRIDGE:

Dying, you destroyed our death.
Rising you restored our life.
Lord, Jesus, come in glory.
Lord, Jesus, come in glory.
Lord, Jesus, come in glory.
Lord, Jesus, come in glory.

Hope

Hope is an interesting virtue. It's not like how we perceive the definition of hope to be in our everyday language. Generally, when we use the word, there is an implication that it is out of your hands. We usually use it as a prayer for odds to be beat. To hope is pray that things will be alright, despite the chances looking slim.

In the virtuous sense, hope is quite different. It is certain that God's will, will be done. Hope trusts in God's many promises, knowing that they will happen.

We are days away from the Triduum. As we celebrate the holiest part of our calendar, there are so many ups and downs. Both emotionally and spiritually. Why do we go through this? The answer is quite simple. It allows us to trust in God.

When we really dive into readings of people who let Jesus down, it is hard to swallow. The crowds who once chanted "Hosanna" are now chanting for His execution. His friends, who took pride in their loyalty, are now denying that they even know Him. It's tough to reflect on our Lord's passion, especially if we see glimpses of ourselves in those who let Him down. Most people would view this betrayal as an excuse to take back good things that were promised. Our God does the opposite and continues his mission.

As I stated earlier, Hope is certain. Despite the shortcomings of Jesus' friends and disciples in the face of social turmoil and the fear of death, there is still Hope. Despite the pain, struggle and eventual death that Jesus went through, it is still certain that He is doing this so we can be with Him in paradise. Nothing could've changed His mind and nothing can stop Him from loving you.

Since Hope is being certain in God's promises, it implies that we need to recognize that God will never change. No matter how many times we ourselves have turned our backs from God, the Hope of salvation shines even brighter. No matter how many times we may have chosen other things over God, He still opened the gates of heaven for us. The Father knew the turmoil that His son had to go through and His willingness to die for us to have eternal life is evidence that Hope truly exists.

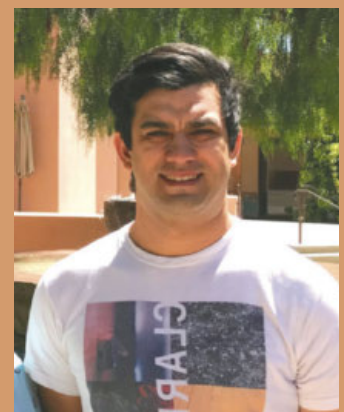

Another reason to Hope is seen in the Resurrection. The one inevitable human experience is death. The Resurrection shows that God will overcome what is deemed impossible just to be with you. When Christ rose from the dead, he not only did the impossible, but He shows that it is more impossible for Him to cease loving you.

As we deal with the ups and downs of the Triduum, let us keep sight on the Resurrection. Without it, none of this has meaning. God allows things to feel hopeless and dead to show you that he can conquer them. If death couldn't even conquer Him, your sins definitely won't.

God Bless,

Brett Becker
