Quiet Heroes

It's been too long since I've done one of my quiet hero bulletins. I'd like to give some recognition to the many volunteers who make our children's faith formation process such a success. There are many I could point out to you, and I know I will in the future.

I'd like to take this moment to draw your attention to one of our quiet heroes, Elaine Denham. Her goodness and generosity begin at home, where she has raised 5 boys and one girl with Richard, her husband, while also looking after her mother and 97-year-old grandmother, along with her disabled brother, the latter three living in Los Angeles. Many people would consider that sufficient.

Elaine has more will to love than that, though, and has cared for our parish children in Little Church. She isn't quite certain when she began, but we think it was in 2009. For all these years she has been a key motherly presence to our little ones, sharing the faith with them. With endless creativity, she provides simple, child appropriate versions of the Sunday readings, with songs, activities and movement time to keep them eagerly coming back for more.

I remember once, standing at the doorway, observing her teach them their left hand from their right. She had a room full of little ones extend their left hand all the way to the left, and wiggle their fingers, and then their right hand all the way to the right, wiggling all the way. This innocent little gesture segued into a prayerful sign of the cross, no wiggling required. It was a precious moment, believe me wiggling fingers and all.

I'm so conscious of what a difference she makes for parents. One parent, who had dropped off one little toddler in Stay and Play, and an older sibling in Little Church, posted on-line that Mass that morning felt like a date with her spouse. I love the thought of a date with God too!

One of her gracious words of wisdom was that "Little Church is important because the parents need church for contemplative time. But, not fifty-two weeks a year. Some weeks it is important to take the children to Mass." She is so right. We want both prayerful parents, and church ready children.

Because Elaine is that way, she made a point of letting us know how important her fellow volunteers, Kathleen Benson and Mary Rogers Vey, were to the success of Little Church from week to week, and how they deserve to be acknowledged. In a world filled with troubling news, it's a pleasure to take time to remind us of the goodness and selflessness of these, our sisters at Padre Serra!

I'm sorry it's taken me so long to get to recognizing her for her fidelity and generosity to the Little Church process. As she and her family are moving to Ventura I felt it just to thank her publicly. Please join with me in saluting Elaine for living out her Christian commitment in tangible ways that both love and care for children, and grant respite for their parents. What a gift!

Siempre adelante!

This no cost service is available during the 9:00am and 11:00am masses in San Juan Bautista room on the right side of the courtyard. Stop by and see all the toys and fun and meet Nicole. You are welcome to stay to be sure your toddler is settled in.

Little Church Summer Schedule ~ August 27

All friends three to six are welcome during the 11:00am mass! We are 'heartsmoved' grateful to Elaine Denham for her years of loving service to the preschool families and children of our parish! Today is Elaine's last official day leading Little Church before she moves her home to Ventura. Elaine, thank you, we love you, God bless you. Those who know you have learned from you. Truly walking the way of Jesus, you have left your footprint at Padre Serra.

Spark! at home ~ Simon was renamed Peter by Jesus because he recognized and believed Jesus to be the son of God. Peter means rock; Jesus needed a strong faithful leader to lay the solid foundation for God's church. What does your name mean? How can you too be a leader for God's church?

Three:Sixteen at home ~ What is necessary to be a good leader? Jesus said whoever wants to lead should serve others (Matt.20:26). Do you think this is what our leaders do today? Who are some good leaders that you think Jesus would recognize? Jesus named Simon, Peter for his solid faith. Think of your strengths as a disciple; what would Jesus name you?

Volunteer Opportunity ~ Faith Formation

This is a beautiful, wonderful, friendly bunch of folks! Every year with about 600 children and teens enrolled in after school learning, we really need about 100 loving, happy adults to help teach and lead. This small army of volunteers are the face of Jesus and his church to our young people. Our Faith Formation staff do all the work! We plan and write all the lessons, prepare all the games, crafts and other materials. We create teams of two to lead the sessions then train, mentor and guide you throughout the year. You are never alone. You just have a great time rolling it out with your partner. We already have 80 people returning, just need about 20 more!! Is this for you? Contact tere@padreserra.org.

Protect the Children

The Golden Rule ~ “Do unto others ...”

As children head back to school, it is important to talk about how they treat others. Jesus said (paraphrased), “Treat people the way you want to be treated,” with kindness, fairness and respect. Talk about how to handle teasing, intimidation, conflict or bullying in their classrooms and playgrounds. What is ok and not ok, and how to respond or walk away and when to get help. Get involved in your child’s school and ask about plans or programs for bullying prevention. To request a copy of the VIRTUS® article “Understanding School Violence, Part 2” email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org.
