Simbang Gabi

Sunday, December 17
11:00am mass
Luncheon to follow in Serra Center

All are invited to this traditional Filipino celebration to prepare our hearts, minds and lives to welcome and receive Jesus at Christmas.

We begin with the 11:00am mass and continue with a luncheon in the Serra Center.

ADVENT CONSPIRACY

Let's conspire together to change the way we celebrate Christmas! Every Sunday of Advent we'll focus on four simple ways to worship fully, spend less, give more, and love all.

Worship Fully

Because Christmas begins and ends with Jesus

This is the holistic approach God had in mind for Christmas. It's a season to release our burdens and lift a song of praise to our God. It's a season where love wins, peace reigns, and a king is celebrated. Entering the story of Advent means entering this season with an overwhelming passion to worship Jesus to the fullest.

Encounter Jesus this Advent by ...

- Using the Little Book, an Advent daily devotional. Available in the church lobby.
- Slowing down a bit ... even for just 10 minutes a day ... to reflect on where Jesus is present on your path.
- Spending time with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel. It's open every day.
- Receiving the sacraments weekly: Sunday liturgy, add a daily liturgy, reconciliation on Saturdays at 3:45 or come to our Advent communal reconciliation service on Wednesday, December 6 at 7:00pm.

Serra Seniors Christmas Luncheon Wednesday, December 13 11:00am - 2:00pm, Serra Center

All adults 55+ are invited for a delicious lunch catered by Command Performance and festive entertainment by Jayme Palmer and Rose Palmer.

Tickets $30. Available today in the courtyard or contact Bob raamantia35@gmail.com

No Anxiety Needed

Dear Friends,

Happy New Year! Our liturgical year of 2018 starts today, with the beginning of the season of Advent. Advent is a time of preparation for 1. the Second Coming of Jesus Christ at the Last Judgement and 2. the commemoration of his first coming in history at Bethlehem. The focus really shifts to preparing for Christmas only from December 17th on. Until then, the Church calls us to prepare for the Lord's return. Several phrases from today's Scriptures speak of this.

In the first reading, the prophet Isaiah, speaking on our behalf prays

“Would that you might meet us doing right, that we were mindful of you in our ways!”

I love the longing implicit in that prayer. But sometimes it seems like a tall order, since it seems so much easier not to be mindful of the Lord, and not to be always doing what is right. Murphy's Law says that's when the Lord will come, will meet us, so what hope do we have?

Responding to the first reading, we sing with the psalmist “Lord, make us turn to you, show us your face, and we shall be saved.” Make us? What happened to free will? Our friends who work 12-step programs may have something useful here. They advocate praying for willingness when it seems beyond our capacity to do right, to be mindful of the Lord in our ways. And honoring the sometimes incremental nature of surrender to God's will, one can even pray for the willingness to be willing, or to become willing. While he will never force us, God can work with the tiniest crack in our defenses!

In Mark's Gospel, Jesus exhorts us

“Be watchful! Be alert!
You do not know when the time will come.”

Just last week, we heard the Gospel story of the Last Judgement where Jesus separates the sheep from the goats – those who cared for him (by caring for one another) from those who did not. It is as clear a declaration as any that what we do matters – that God cares how we treat one another. So when we choose generosity over grasping, compassion over violence, we are in fact becoming Jesus' disciples, and truly preparing to be met doing right, and mindful of the Lord in our ways.

In the second reading, St. Paul assures the community at Corinth (and us)

“...you are not lacking in any spiritual gift
as you wait for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ.”

So, it seems, anxiety is not needed – just faith in God's grace to help us be ready when Jesus comes again, when we can say, and mean: “Maranatha! Lord Jesus come!”

Siempre Adelante,

Las Posadas

Monday, December 4
7:00pm in church
Fiesta to follow at Serra Center

Las Posadas is a Mexican tradition commemorating Mary and Joseph's long frustrating search for a place to stay and Jesus to be born in Bethlehem. This Advent custom re-enacts the gospel story told in Luke 2:1-7 with prayer and song. We learn from the Posadas that by welcoming the poor and needy, we are welcoming Jesus in our midst.

Let us come together for a fun, interactive and enriching Advent celebration to prepare our hearts for Jesus' coming!

Come early to learn the posadas songs and stay for a fiesta with a piñata for the kids and goodies for the adults!
