Blessed Be Your Name

Matt Redman & Beth Redman

Blessed be Your name
 In the land that is plentiful
 Where Your streams of abundance flow
 Blessed be Your name

Blessed be Your name
 When I'm found in the desert place
 Though I walk through the wilderness
 Blessed be Your name

Ev-'ry bless - ing You pour out I'll turn back to praise.
 When the dark - ness clos - es in, Lord, still I will say,
 "Bless-ed be the name of the Lord, bless-ed be Your name. Bless-ed be the name of the Lord, bless-ed be Your glo - ri - ous name."

Blessed be Your name
 When the sun's shining down on me
 When the world's all as it should be
 Blessed be Your name

Blessed be Your name
 On the road marked with suffering
 Though there's pain in the offering
 Blessed be Your name

True Love

Dear Faith Family,

Happy Valentines Week! Although I wrote this letter before our retreat, by the time you read this, our Year 2 Confirmation Candidates will have been on their annual three-day retreat.

While it may be presumptuous to assume that it was a success, there is no doubt in my mind that it was. Any opportunity to leave the hustle and bustle of the world behind to create an intimate environment with the God who loves us can only bring success, no matter how big or small it may be.

While the theme of our retreat was not exactly “Valentines Day,” there are some inherent activities that are quite similar to a romance. We all know the importance of having time spent alone with our loved ones, this is no different when it comes to our loving God. Every waking second our God is yearning for us, inviting us to be with Him. Those moments that we answer the call are very pleasing to God who courts us.

This is why I feel that any moment, whether it is retreat, mass or simple personal time of prayer, is so vital to our relationship with God. Every moment that we take to be with Him does not only fulfill us, but it also makes our God quite happy that we made time to be with him. Sometimes we have to remember that the goal of our Church and our Parish is not to form a simple allegiance to our wonderful faith, but to form a real and personal relationship with God.

If you feel that you haven’t spent time with God in a while, I invite you to do so. We are blessed to have a God that forms no grudges, but is willing to wait an eternity to be with you. If you have any questions on how to pursue or strengthen your relationship with God, we have a wonderful pastor, staff, volunteers and parishioners who can give you personal testimony on how they like to spend time with their loved one. Ask.

Lastly, I want to thank you all for your prayers for all those involved in youth and young adult ministry. We recently had our first young adult retreat in December, with more than fifty retreatants, which was also a great spiritual achievement. Our ministries are growing every second, and I thank you all for your time, effort and prayer for both Youth and Young Adult Ministry. If you would like to contribute further, we are having our parish Fairways to Heaven event – a friendly day of golf, a super fun helicopter ball drop (I am told that Fr. Patrick is going up in the helicopter!) and a beautiful evening at the Las Posas Country Club on March 13th. Proceeds go to benefit both our Youth and Young Adult Ministries. I’d love to see you there!

God Bless,

Brett Becker
Youth and Young Adult Minister
