Trust in Him

Dear Parishioners,

In our busy world we can so easily get overwhelmed with all our to do's. The many tasks and deadlines of our employment, our responsibilities at home and with our family. Are the bills paid? Did I get my child's project supplies? The list can be endless, the worries never end. Today's readings give us a simple answer, to all our worries and questions.

Seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given you ...<sup>1</sup> As servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God ...<sup>2</sup> Do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink ...<sup>1</sup> The Lord will never forget you ...<sup>3</sup> Trust in Him at all times ... pour out your hearts before him ... you shall not be disturbed ...<sup>4</sup>

As we struggle to find the balance, we are reminded to trust in Him, for He knows our needs. Let us address each day's problems as they come. Confident that we are in God's loving care.

We are not asked to forget all our responsibilities but to continue in our daily task, with joy and love, that others may see Jesus through us.

This Lenten season, perhaps we can work on letting go of our worries and anxieties. Come be at peace in the presence of our Lord. Come to Adoration every Friday of Lent in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel. Do not worry of what to pray about or do, let yourself just be ... in His presence, in His loving embrace.

Perhaps you just want to learn more about your spouse's faith. We have a casual group for people in your situation. ## Protect the Children

Stress Can Affect Children

Everyone has stress, whether it is a bad day at work, car trouble, or simply too many things to do. It is important to learn how to manage stress, both for your sake and for the children around you. Too much stress can make it difficult to parent effectively. After a while, your children may show signs of being stressed too. For a fact sheet on managing stress, please email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org.
