GATHERING

Amazing Grace

Gather #645

Amazing grace! how sweet the sound
That saved a soul like me!
I once was lost, but now I'm found;
Was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear
And grace, my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed!

The Lord has promised good to me
His word my hope secures;
He will my shield and portion be
As long as life endures.

Through many dangers, toils, and snares
I have already come;
'Tis grace has brought me safe thus far
And grace will lead me home.

When we've been there ten-thousand years
Bright shining as the sun
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we first begun.

“What you hear in whispers, proclaim from the housetop”

Are we ready to do this?! Let us climb up to the highest building tops or mountains and proclaim the good news of the gospel! Who is with me?! (crickets) I know many of us may say “Who, me? That's a job for the priest, deacons, nuns, even a catechist. I don't know what to say or how to say it? Remember, Jesus did not go to the priests ... he went to his followers, fishermen, tax collectors, ordinary people.

Fear not, God sent us his Spirit, to be with us till the end of time. How do we get started? When we draw from the well of the richness of our faith, we are blessed with many examples. Do as St. Francis of Assisi, “Preach at all times, and when necessary use words” for it is not always about what we say, it is what we do. “Do small things with great love,” Mother Teresa.

Following Jesus is not an easy task. Society and our Catholic Christian beliefs don't always coincide. Jesus never said it would be easy. But we need to truly understand that our perspective is beyond this world. That is what it means to be a follower and a disciple of Christ. When we believe this to be true, it will show in our words and actions.

Of course, the greatest resource we have at our disposal is the Holy Spirit. It was through Baptism that each of us first received the Holy Spirit, and at Confirmation we received the fullness of the Spirit's seven gifts. At times we will need to pray, “Holy Spirit, guide me” calling upon the Strength, the Wisdom, and the Courage that the Lord and giver of life offers us.

As we go about our daily lives may we openly share God's love with others, through the stories of our big and little miracles but most of all of his presence in our joys, sorrows, in our homes, work and play. We should never be embarrassed or afraid to share our faith. They will know we are Christian by our love.

Just like you can go to your parents when you need something, you can also go to our loving God. This week's prayer, "Loving God, we trust you because you know us so well."

Three:Sixteen ~ This Sunday we are reminded that even though sometimes it's hard to be brave, especially when we go against the crowd to do the right thing, we don't have to be afraid because we have God's love and protection. He knows us so well that he even knows how many hairs are on our head, that is more than we even know ourselves. This week when faced with a challenge pray, "Loving God, I trust you, help me to always do the right thing."

Protect the Children

Avoiding Gossip

It is natural to discuss concerns and problems with the people in our lives. If not careful, it can be easy for these discussions to slip into gossip. Teaching children to avoid gossip and focus on truth starts at home. Try not to gossip about rumors or people. Make statements like "if we can't say something nice, say nothing." Teach children to seek solutions for problems rather than just talking about it. For a copy of the VIRTUS® article "How Do I Avoid the Gossip Swirl?" email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org.

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table.

There is nothing to fear if we stay close to Jesus.

Listen to the Word: Matthew 10:26-33

What words or phrases in today's Gospel reading catch your ear?

What image from this reading touches your heart?

Looking into My Life

Jesus tells us that he will remember us to his Father if we proclaim him to others. Do I talk about my faith with my friends, family or people I don't know very well? Do I even know what to say or how to begin? How easy, or difficult, is it for me?
