Men's Silent Retreat April 21-23, 2017 Mater Dolorosa Retreat Center, Sierra Madre

The Crucified One is No Stranger

We will explore the question we all ask many times: Is God truly present in our lives? Not just in the beautiful and graced moments, but even in the broken and dark places?

With the eyes of Christ, we can recognize his presence among us. And from the cross, his cross and ours, Christ calls us to hope. He summons us to resurrection. And most mysteriously, even as the crucified and risen Jesus invites us to recognize him in his wounds, we will come to recognize ourselves in new life.

Register online: <https://passionist.org/category/mater-dolorosa-passionist-retreat-center/> or in the courtyard today and March 25-26. Questions: Dave McCormick 558-7868, marketengr@yahoo.com.

Music Ministry

Dear Friends,

If you've ever looked at our Padre Serra adult choir during 9 o'clock mass you might have wondered why some of us have our eyes on the back row of the church and not on the conductor or the altar.

It's because in addition to searching for the right note, key, lyrics and rhythm, we are also trying to reach that person who might be giving God and their Catholic faith one last chance. I'll explain.

The music ministry at Padre Serra is under the direction of Dominic MacAller, our Worship Minister. Dominic's extraordinary talents include enduring patience, deep knowledge of the scriptures (particularly as it relates to liturgical music), an endless sense of humor, exceptional musical knowledge and an ability to inspire the 60-odd members of the choir when we are tired at the end of a long Thursday and in our 80th minute of rehearsal.

He reminds us that our ministry as members of the choir is to serve the congregation and enhance their worship experience at the celebration of the mass. And to always bear in mind that there might be one disillusioned Catholic at this mass, sitting in the back row, telling God, "I'll give you one more chance and then I'm out of here for good." Dominic urges us to sing to that person. To aim our voices and words at a soul we might be losing for good. Maybe this song, these words can convince that person that God really cares.

The music ministry might be the most demanding and most rewarding of our many ministries at Padre Serra, particularly during holiday seasons. The adult choir rehearses weekly for at least 90 minutes and sometimes for two hours. Cantors have the pleasure of extra rehearsal. Our children's and young adults choirs also rehearse. We show up for mass 30 minutes early. But there must be something to it because the only reasons people give for quitting are relocation out of state, job pressures, illness or death. Being in choir is like a federal judgeship. You're there for life.

Let me tell you what the music ministry is not – a group of divas showing off their God-given skills. There are those in the choir whose musical talent far exceeds the others. Some could perform professionally and a few do. But most of us are people who can sing reasonably well, have the ability to listen to the conductor (most of the time), and a desire to enhance our worship at Padre Serra. Nothing moves us more than the smiling congregation singing with us, or our fellow parishioners in contemplation as we sing. We are there to help you worship more completely.

We love that our pastor – Father Patrick – enjoys music as much as we do and sings so well. He's an inspiration, a supporter and an occasional Thursday night drop-in cheerleader.

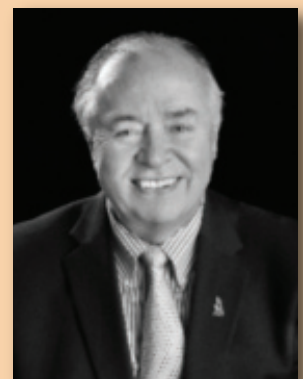

Our music changes – with the seasons and with the mood of the mass. There is welcoming music and sending forth songs. If we are not engaging you at the start – or sending you out of church with a tune in your head – we have not done our job. There is sacred music – often in Latin – designed for somber, contemplative parts of the mass. There are the songs sung at every mass – the Gloria, the Lamb of God and so forth.

Padre Serra is a special parish in so many ways. The atmosphere. The building. The participation. The giving nature of the parishioners. The little army of altar servers. And so many more reasons. It's all designed to enhance our worship and for many in the choir, to try and bring that lost sheep back in the fold for one more Sunday.

Siempre Adelante,

Tim Gallagher

Keep Kids Aware of Dangers Online

The internet can be a valuable tool for learning, communicating and educating. In the classroom and at home, kids go online to do research and assignments. Adults should educate kids about online dangers – predators and strangers who are trolling for information can pose as anyone. It is important that kids use caution on any site, no matter what they are doing. Email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org, request a copy of the VIRTUS® article "Safety and Technology."
