place. Be my ref - uge; be my dwell - ing place.

1-4 to Verses
Final

You who find a shelter in the Most High,
say to God:
“My refuge and my stronghold.”

No distress or evil shall befall you;
God and all the angels walk beside you.

Lest you dash your foot against a stone, angels of the Lord will carry you in their arms.

For your love of me I will protect you;
in your time of trouble
I will be with you.

Bernadette Farrell

Refrain: All
 Bread for the world: a world of hun-ger. Wine for all peo - ples: peo - ple who thirst. May we who eat be bread for oth - ers. May we who drink pour out our love.

Lord Jesus Christ, you are the bread of life broken to reach and heal the wounds of human pain.
 Where we divide your people,
 you are waiting there
 on bended knee to wash our feet
 with endless care.

Lord Jesus Christ,
 you are the wine of peace,
 poured into hearts once broken
 and where dryness sleeps.
 Where we are tired and weary,
 you are waiting there
 to be the way which beckons us beyond despair.

Lord Jesus Christ, you called us to your feast,
 at which the rich and pow'rful have become the least.
 Where we survive on others
 in our human greed,
 you walk among us
 begging for your ev'ry need.

SENDING FORTH

Blessed Be Your Name

Matt Redman & Beth Redman

Blessed be Your name
 In the land that is plentiful
 Where Your streams of abundance flow
 Blessed be Your name

Blessed be Your name
 When I'm found in the desert place
 Though I walk through the wilderness
 Blessed be Your name

Blessed be Your name
 When the sun's shining down on me
 When the world's all as it should be
 Blessed be Your name

Blessed be Your name
 On the road marked with suffering
 Though there's pain in the offering
 Blessed be Your name

Every blessing You pour out I'll turn back to praise...

say, "Lord, Bless - ed be Your name." You name."

Blessed be the name of the Lord, blessed be Your name.
 Blessed be the name of the Lord, blessed be Your glorious name.

My Dear Parish Family,

Welcome to Lent! You may have already decided what you are doing for the next 40 days in the way of prayer, self-denial and charitable deeds. Some of us are still deciding, but I am going to suggest that whatever we do for Lent, we put it all into an important context this year, that is into the context of baptismal spirituality. Let me explain by way of a little historical background.

In the early centuries of the Church, becoming a Christian was a gradual process of apprenticeship in a counter-cultural way of life. The season we now call Lent was the final and intense period when the seekers were prepared to be immersed into the waters of baptism at the Easter Vigil. When infant baptism became the norm in the fifth century, Lent became merely a penitential time for the baptized to prepare for the celebration of Easter. The pre-baptismal character of Lent was forgotten until it was revived by the Second Vatican Council in the twentieth century.

Today Lent has two strands, baptismal and penitential, woven together. It is again a time when we journey with adults and older children to the baptismal font at the Easter Vigil. As we encourage and pray for them during Lent, we reflect on the meaning of our own baptism when we ourselves "put on Christ." Our penitential practices help us to examine our lives in the context of baptismal mission: are we living as disciples of Jesus, continuing his mission in the world? For 40 days we ponder this in order to authentically renew our own baptismal promises at Easter.

I'd like to suggest that you and your families do something at the beginning of Lent that I did recently with the adult confirmation candidates. Single people could do this with a small group of friends. Gather mementos of each person's baptism: the certificate, candle, white garment, photos or stories remembered by those who attended. Share all of these memories with the group. What should emerge, as it did with our confirmation candidates, is a sense of the importance placed on this day by our families. Hopefully this will lead to a discussion of the meaning of baptism and the difference it makes in our lives and in the life of the world.

May Lent 2017 be fruitful for all of us, marked by an increased awareness and understanding of the great gift of baptism.

Blessings,

Catherine Shadduck

Temptation: What would Jesus do?

Listen to the Word Matthew 4:1-11

As you listen to the familiar story of Jesus' journey into the desert, what word or phrase did you notice? As you heard it again today, what image from this story lingers in your memory?

Look into My Life

Jesus was tempted by the devil. How am I tempted? What helps me resist these temptations? When I pause to be alone with God, what distracts and prevents me from dwelling in that moment? What do I plan to do this Lent as a way of growing closer to Jesus?

Protect the Children

Transportation Safety

The safety of our children is often entrusted to other drivers – bus drivers, family members, friends' parents, coaches – parents should be aware of who is in charge of transportation. Although we cannot control everything, we can teach our children how to ride in another person's vehicle. Teach kids to always wear seatbelts and avoid distracting behavior that could take the driver's attention away from the road. Know school policies and requirements regarding transportation. For a copy of the VIRTUS© article "Child Care Providers Urged to Check Vehicle Safety, Training, and Health of Drivers," contact jvienna@la-archdiocese.org.

Becoming Catholic ~ RCIA

Married to a Catholic?

Have you been attending church with your spouse, even raised your children Catholic, but never took that step to inquire about becoming Catholic yourself? Perhaps you just want to learn more about your spouse's faith. We have a casual group for people in your situation. Contact Catherine Shadduck: catherine@padreserra.org or (805) 482-6417 ext 331.
