Monday, May 22

6:30pm doors open, refreshments

7:00pm presentation

Have you ever wondered what it takes to become a saint? Is there any hope for us ordinary people whose weaknesses and failings seem to get in the way of following the teachings and example of Jesus? What could we learn from the example of St. Junipero Serra?

Fr. Melvin Jurisich, OFM, will enlighten us about sainthood and holiness as he shares his experiences serving on the committee advocating the canonization of Junipero Serra. Director of Serra Retreat House in Malibu, Fr. Jurisich was also responsible for organizing St. Serra's canonization ceremony in Washington DC in 2015.

*Jubilate Deo, omnis terra;

Introite in conspectu ejus
In exultatione.*

Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all ye lands.
Serve the Lord with gladness;
Come before His presence with singing

*Quoniam suavis est Dominus:
in aeternum misericordia ejus,

in generationem veritas ejus.*

For the Lord is good;
His mercy is everlasting;

Verses: Cantor

1. This is the day that the Lord has made.
Let us rejoice and be glad.
2. Give thanks to the Lord!
Our God is good.
Whose love endures forever.
Let all the children of Israel say:
God's love endures forever.
3. The right hand of God has struck with power.
The right hand of God is exalted.
I shall not die, but I shall live and proclaim the works of the Lord!
4. The stone which the builders rejected

By the Lord has this been done.
How wonderful to behold!

Dear Friends,

Reflecting over today's readings, I think about families; the way you can recognize someone's family members because they may share similar physical traits, characteristics or mannerisms. Others share the same love and enthusiasm for an activity like a sport, music or cooking. We often hear expressions such as "she is her mother's daughter" or "like father, like son." I believe that is what Jesus is reminding us of today. "If you know me, then you will also know my Father. I am in the Father and the Father in me." "I am the Truth the Way and the Life."

God is ever faithful! He keeps his promises.

Most recently I experienced this Gospel with the passing of my grandmother. My grandmother was a devout Catholic attending daily Mass, saying her rosaries and sharing with me about our faith. In the last few years of her life because of all her health complications and Alzheimer's, conversations were limited. Yet with a little help she could still say all her prayers and even sing her favorite church songs, this was not the case with other things. In the last two weeks of her life she told my mother and anyone who would listen, that she was ready, she wanted to see God and Our Mother Mary.

My mother's response was to pray to the Sacred Heart of Jesus to come and take her home. God is faithful and keeps his promises ... "Even if your mother were to forget you, I will not forget you!" (Isa.49:15) My grandmother was unable to remember any of us, but she never forgot about God! I know Jesus came and lead her home. She now dwells in the house of the Father. Even in the haze of her disease, she was faithful in her unwavering faith and trust in God. She preached this faith to her last moment. The faithful routines and reminders of her lifelong faith surpassed even the most difficult of diseases in her Alzheimer's. Her faith was etched into her soul and into her memory until her final days.

The joy of the Resurrection, as we know can not be contained into one day, but celebrated in for the whole Easter Season. Our joy on this Mother's Day weekend is for all our mothers who are with us, and the ones that have gone before us with our Lord to help prepare that place for us. I want to wish all the mothers who so diligently give of themselves in every way for their children, a Bouquet of Blessings.
