Monday, May 22

6:30pm doors open, refreshments
 7:00pm presentation

Have you ever wondered what it takes to become a saint? Is there any hope for us ordinary people whose weaknesses and failings seem to get in the way of following the teachings and example of Jesus? What could we learn from the example of St. Junipero Serra?

Fr. Melvin Jurisich, OFM, will enlighten us about sainthood and holiness as he shares his experiences serving on the committee advocating the canonization of Junipero Serra. Director of Serra Retreat House in Malibu, Fr. Jurisich was also responsible for organizing St. Serra's canonization ceremony in Washington, D.C., in 2015.

A Sabbatical Update

I thought I'd give you an update on my sabbatical, especially to put some people at rest over a concern. A surprising number of you have wondered if this sabbatical marked a transition for me to some other assignment. Please, put this worry to rest. I am coming back and expect to remain here at Padre Serra for years to come. I am going nowhere else. I love it here at Padre Serra. My life with you is very rich and satisfying. I love being your priest. I am aware of no discussion, anywhere in the archdiocese, of my being needed anywhere else. I think that my joint work between parish and seminary is appreciated. So please, waste none of your energy fretting. God-willing-and-the-creek-don't-rise, I will return the first weekend of Advent, where we will all, wearing purple, greet one another in Christ, to prepare for His return and Christmas.

A number of you thought I was leaving immediately, but I'll be here into July. My last weekend at the parish, before the sabbatical will be July 8th and 9th. The following weekend I will be at Serra Retreat House in Malibu with the parish couples' retreat, which I await with pleasure. The planning team have some great talks and it should be a wonderful time of grace.

I will officially be on sabbatical the very next day, on July 17th. I have a few days to pack and fly to Spain before classes begin in Spanish in Salamanca and then Barcelona. I will have two weeks in each city, where the average daily high is about 86° – I will be thinking of cool, Camarillo afternoon breezes! Those classes will continue until August 18th.

On August 19th I will travel to Irun, Spain, where I will begin my pilgrimage to Santiago by walking to my hotel room from the Puente de Santiago ("bridge of Santiago") over the Bidasoa River, which marks the border between Spain and France. It's a bit anticlimactic, walking past the train station and through the industrial part of town, but the next forty-two days will make up for it. I hope to post to the parish Facebook page, as Wi-Fi allows.

Here's where you come in. I would love to carry the prayers of your hearts with me as I go. Many of you passed on beautiful prayers to me before I went to Portugal, and every time I came to a shrine or church I would stop and pray through several of them. I felt deeply connected with you, through those prayers, and look forward to doing the same. Please, consider what your hearts longings are, and send them to me in an email (frpatrick@padreserra.org). I have already received a few intentions, often for family healing. I promise to pray for whatever you send me, by name. If you would like to send me anonymous prayers, that will also be fine. Just leave a phone message with my assistant, Barbara, and she'll see to it that they are included.

I have made definite plans to continue my pilgrimage from Santiago to Valencia and then to Mallorca where our own St. Junipero Serra was born, in Petra, and first worked, in Palma. I will have a few days there to consider his life and my own growth in holiness. We walk in Serra's footsteps here in Camarillo. It will be my joy to walk in them in the place of his birth.

As you can probably guess, I'm hugely excited by these months ahead!

Siempre adelante!
