Respecting All Life ... From Womb to Tomb

365 days a year we are called to respect all life, at every stage.

October is traditionally Respect Life month and so this year

we'll bring focus to these areas:

Week 1: Pregnancy & Parenting

Week 2: Foster Care & Adoption

Week 3: Healing & Mercy

Week 4: End of Life

Our role model ... St. John Paul II

Not only did he write and speak eloquently of the dignity of human life, and the blessing of the elderly, but he lived it. He showed us how to suffer for Christ and offer one's life as a gift to the Lord.

What we can do ...

- Pray and reflect on the Beatitudes and the Corporal Works of Mercy, especially those who are sick, homebound, elderly, dying and their caregivers
- Promote or attend our Serra Senior fellowship ministry and our support groups for cancer patients/survivors, caregivers, and bereaved
- Volunteer as a Eucharistic Minister to the sick, homebound and hospitalized; OASIS (Older Adult Services & Intervention System); Lazarus Ministry (funeral attendance); local hospice program
- Educate yourself and plan your wishes for health care, finances, and funeral. Contact Teresa Runyon teresa@padreserra.org

GLORIA

Glory to God (Mass of St. Ann)

Ed Bolduc

Glory! Glory to God in the highest.
Glory! Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
We give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
With the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

Glory! Glory to God in the highest.
Glory! Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
Amen.

To Ask and to Give

Dear Faith Family,

This Sunday's Gospel's is one of my favorites. Generally, in scripture, it is hard to decipher the intent of those who encounter Jesus. When they ask questions, you usually have to question whether the people either mean well or if they are trying to trap Jesus. The reason why this Sunday's Gospel is one of my favorites, is because the intent of those asking Jesus questions are perfectly laid out.

Before we dive into the passage further, I do have a question for all of us to ponder. Do we ever try to trap God with our own prayers? I know it sounds like only malicious people would do such a thing, but I feel that sometimes we only pray to get something from God.

I am not saying asking God for things is wrong, that is definitely untrue. In any worthwhile relationship, it is healthy to ask our loved ones for help when we need it. Sometimes though, the trap of only asking and never giving can hinder the strength of any relationship.

I know in my spiritual lulls, I tend to ask God for a lot of things, but within this same lull, I fail to let God know that I love him, and I also fail to ask God what he needs from me. When my prayer life is not strong, my friendship with God is not strong either.

Now, I'm not saying God doesn't want to give to us. Like any good Father, God wants to and will provide, regardless of our current relationship. And I guarantee that God does provide even when we are simply asking Him for assistance. With that said, it is vastly important to simply spend time with our Father. He yearns for us and when we yearn back for him, our relationship grows stronger.

In the Gospel, it was obvious that the Pharisees have terrible intent. Christ knew it too. Notice though, that Jesus still answered their question, even though the Pharisees were trying to trap Him. God will always provide us with the right answers, even when we aren't at a strong relationship point with Him because He loves us and wants us to know the truth.

So please friends, continue to ask God questions, ask him for assistance, ask him for anything, He will always provide. But let's take some time to just be with God as well, because he wants to be with us.

God Bless,

Brett Becker

Our Giving — Time, Talent and Treasure

Natural Disasters ~ during October

The Bishops of our nation have asked us to take up a combined collection for the victims of Hurricanes Harvey, Irma and Maria as well as the earthquake in Mexico. If you wish that your donation benefit a specific area, please indicate that in the memo line. Please make checks payable to Archdiocese of Los Angeles. Our Bishops thank us for our support and continued prayers for all.

World Mission Sunday ~ October 22

Each year, the entire Church is invited to support the young mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands and parts of Latin America and Europe, where we serve the poorest of the poor. This year, we are encouraged to learn more about the Pope's missions; go to ChatWithThePope.org. Envelopes in the church narthex.

Welcome to Our Newest Altar Servers

Twelve new altar servers were installed last Sunday after nine months of training and apprenticing. We now have 120 altar servers with over half in high school. Ours is one of the largest parish altar server ministries in the archdiocese. We pause today to express our gratitude to our servers and their parents and families. Parents adjust their schedules every week to get their kids to church to ensure that our liturgies are enhanced by our altar servers. Likewise, we express sincere gratitude to our altar server leadership team: Raelynne Lorenz, Bryan Lorenz, Frank Bifulco, Michelle Hatch, Kathy Quantock, Coleen Barsley, Clare Shadduck, Terry Tong and Bob Shadduck. Congratulations and thank you to all our altar servers, especially the 12 recently installed:

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table.

Discipleship and Respecting All Life

Listening to the Word: Matthew 22:15-21

What word or phrase stands out? What questions arise?

Looking into My Life

God's image is engraved upon each human person and so all life is sacred. All facets of our lives are interwoven and connected. As Christians we cannot compartmentalize our lives, separating the spiritual from the worldly or religion from politics.

Where have I noticed a lack of respect for life? What can I do to promote a greater respect for the sacredness of life?

Becoming Catholic ~ RCIA
