God Moments: Recognizing God's Presence in Our Lives

In our busy lives we often fail to notice that God might be trying to get our attention. Sometimes it is hard to hear God's voice above the noisy demands of everyday life. But if we try, we can stop for a moment to recall times when God was present to us, speaking his words of love, comfort, forgiveness, and guidance. This special evening is an opportunity to take some time out to reflect on your own "God Moments" and share them with friends in prayer and conversation.

Funding the Mission with Imagination

As I contemplate the Annual Parish Report due this week, I am aware that our financial success or failure is but call to service. The success of Padre Serra Parish is not found on a balance sheet, it is not in the bank or in a financial report. Our mission work, individually and collectively, is the measure of our discipleship, the true measure of our success.

Funding the mission of the church takes talent, treasure, creativity and imagination ... from all of us. A few years ago, I met a Superior Court Judge in a small California town who found a creative way to use his position to honor the mission of his Catholic faith and serve the needs of his community.

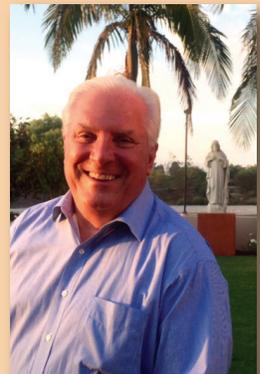

When I arrived for the third day of trial in a civil case, the courtroom was filled with people present to argue cases on the court's twice weekly traffic calendar. Although the town where this occurred is small, it is at the center of two interstates and lots of traffic offenders are cited to appear in this remote courthouse. I waited for the courtroom to clear and noticed a very curious occurrence. As you would expect, lots of people pled their case and left the courtroom. However, while still waiting for the traffic calendar to end, I saw more than a few of these same people return and walk into the courtroom with bags of groceries. When the traffic calendar finally ended, I walked into the courtroom and jokingly asked the judge if the court was catering lunch with all the groceries. The judge laughed and explained that the small town was deeply poverty stricken, the last major employer left town and there were no jobs and little hope. To help the community, the judge unilaterally implemented a unique program. From early October through mid-November the judge gave traffic offenders a choice to either pay their fine as usual, or satisfy the fine by delivering non-perishable food to the courthouse equal to 50% of their fine. The judge explained that it took a while for people to understand but eventually most people elected to bring in food and cut their fine by half. The court stored all the food in the jury room and on the weekend before Thanksgiving, the local Sheriff's Department, working with local churches, delivered all of the food to needy people throughout the community. Remarkably, the judge did the same program from mid-November through mid-December, however people were offered the option of returning with children's toys equal to 50% of their fine. Like the groceries, the toys were delivered to children in need a few days before Christmas.

It took imagination, willpower and work but that program helped a lot of people. How much imagination do you have? How creative can you be? What can we do, individually and collectively, to live our discipleship and fund the mission of the church here at Padre Serra Parish? With imagination, willpower and work, we too can Fund the Mission.

Siempre adelante,

Together in Mission 2017

Our Together in Mission goal for 2017 was $107,600. Once again the generosity of Padre Serra Parishioners came through. Our total collected for 2017 as of this week is $117,158.56 meaning we exceeded our goal by nearly $10,000 and we still have a few pledges left to be paid. In 2017, 508 families participated in our Together in Mission Campaign. The Together in Mission campaign will send a check to the parish for whatever amount exceeded our goal. The parish has the discretion to use this money as they see fit. In recent years our Finance Council and Father Patrick have chosen to share the amount that comes back to us with other parishes or schools who we know have financial needs even if they are not a Together in Mission recipient, thus fulfilling the intent of your gift to the campaign. Each year our goal is a challenge for us, but you have risen to the challenge once again and we are proud and grateful for your support.
